Mike Tomlin Bio

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers' history.

In Tomlin's six years as head coach, he has guided the Steelers' defense to the NFL's top ranking in total defense four times, including most recently in 2012. He has also sent a total of 38 selections to the league's annual Pro Bowl, including two following the 2012 season. Tomlin has reached the playoffs four times in his first six seasons, including two trips to the Super Bowl (winning Super Bowl XLIII).

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers' head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin has compiled a 63-33 record in the regular season during his six-year head coaching career. His .656 winning percentage in his first six seasons is the second-best in team history and it is the fifth-highest winning percentage amongst active NFL coaches.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 ypg) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 ypg).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team has posted 12 wins, which marked only the second time in team history it has been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in his career (2007). He also had five players (QB Ben Roethlisberger, WR Mike Wallace, C Maurkice Pouncey, S Troy Polamalu and KR/WR Antonio Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed, points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (WR Hines Ward, WR Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (RB Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record in 2009 after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers' history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers' head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by running back Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Coach Tomlin Press Conference
December 30, 2012

Coach Tomlin: Good afternoon. This being the last press conference of the 2012 season, there are a few things that I'd like to outline in terms of what I will talk about. I will wrap a bow around our last performance yesterday and summarize that. I will talk about the status of some injuries coming out of the game. I will give you a quick assessment or feeling of the 2012 season, and outline the plan moving forward, and how we will go about pushing into 2013. Lastly, I will be happy to field any questions. In regards to yesterday's game, I was really pleased with the effort of the men. I thought they played extremely hard. I thought in many ways, it mirrored a lot of the challenges that we've had this season. I was really proud of guys like John Malecki, who stepped in and played a substantial amount of guard for us. Ramon Foster ended up playing quite a bit of right tackle. Guys like Ramon, who have played right guard, left guard and now right tackle, I just really appreciate their efforts. On the other side of the ball, we had some young cornerbacks that played quite a bit of football after Keenan Lewis went down. We essentially had two cornerbacks up in the game, Cortez Allen and Josh Victorian. They had responsibility on defense but Victorian played a lot of special teams for us. There were a lot of unique efforts by a lot of people to produce that victory. I am just appreciative of their efforts and proud of them. It wasn't a perfect game by any stretch but we made the necessary plays. I thought the defense did a nice job of providing short fields. I thought the offense did a nice job of capitalizing on those opportunities, not only in terms of putting points on the board but putting seven points on the board, to maximize the turnovers. I thought that was big for us. I thought it was the deciding factor in terms of the outcome of the game for us. It's good to go out on a winning note. We talked a little bit about that yesterday. I don't have any preconceived notions about this being a building block pushing forward into 2013 for us collectively. 2012 is 2012. 2013 is 2013. But I did think some of the things that transpired in the stadium can be helpful to individuals as they grow as professional football players. Hopefully that can be a springboard for them as they push into the offseason and ready themselves to expand their roles and etch out their roles for us in 2013. I thought a lot of young guys got an opportunity to play. Some special teams guys, guys that can singularly be described as special teams guys, got an opportunity to play on offense and defense. Some inactive-types got an opportunity to be active. Some practice squad-types got an opportunity to put their hand in the pile and contribute. All of those can be positive things for the men that I talked about, if they use it as a springboard and move forward. Obviously, those will be our intentions as we get into the offseason as we get into the process of signing futures to the roster, and as we attack our offseason opportunities. Some of the in-game injuries and some of the recent surgeries, I will talk about some of the prospects and overall health as we push into the offseason. Kelvin Beachum sustained a concussion in the game. We don't expect any long-term effects from that. David DeCastro had a severe stinger. We don't expect any long-term effect from that. Cameron Heyward probably has a rib fracture. Brett Keisel has an MCL sprain. Surgery will not be required for him. Keenan Lewis, same thing. It's his MCL, a right knee sprain. It won't require surgery. Ryan Clark had a contusion to his left quad, and it was a pretty severe one. He spent the night last night in the hospital from a precautionary standpoint. I've touched based with him this morning. He has been released. He is resting comfortably at home. We did want to exercise precaution with his left quad contusion, to make sure nothing unfortunate developed over the course of the night. He said it was uneventful. He is rested, and he has been released. Some other recent guys that had surgery, Heath Miller had his MCL and ACL reconstructed. There is no timetable on his rehabilitation or the steps to that at this point. DeMarcus Van Dyke had his shoulder reconstructed. That appears to be positive. Again, it's too early to have a timetable in terms of what is going on with him. The same can be said for Baron Batch. He had a plate inserted into his arm from his broken arm the other week. That surgery was completed. Really, there is no concrete timetable on him. Some of the other preexisting injuries to guys like Mike Adams, Curtis Brown, Ike Taylor and others, they will be able to get healthy without surgery. We will continue to monitor these guys. They will have exit interviews and physical examinations.

They are a critical component of wrapping a bow around this 2012 season to make sure that we got off on 2013 in as positive of a manner as we can. Quickly, just assessing the 2012 season, it was what it was. Obviously, there is a certain level of disappointment that comes with sitting here, even right now, having an end of the season press conference. Those are never our intentions. Obviously, we desire to be a team that is consistently in the battle for the Vince Lombardi trophy. That didn't transpire this year for a number of reasons, primarily that we didn't do enough in the closing moments of close football games. I think we outlined it here a few weeks ago. We've been in eight or so games that have been decided by three points or less. I think we were 3-5 in those games. That will produce an 8-8-like record that will have you on the outside looking in. those of us that have been in this business for any length of time, we understand that and embrace that. The good teams, the dominant teams, aren't necessarily dominant inside stadiums but they are dominant largely in moments, and they do what is required to get out of stadiums with victories. We didn't do that consistently enough. We didn't. If you look at us as units, offensively I thought we started off on the right foot in terms of dominating time of possession and converting third downs. We did what was required in those areas to possess the ball and win football games. Obviously we didn't ascend in the second half of the season in those areas. It was an Achilles' heel for us. Defensively, I thought we didn't start out very well, particularly in situational football and getting off on third downs, and the end of the half and end of the game type of things. I thought we grew into those roles and improved over the course of the season. It was a really good defense in the latter portions of season, particularly in those settings. I think the statistics show that. But again, not enough significant plays in those moments at the early portion of the season that produced wins, such as Tennessee and others. It is what it is. On special teams, I thought we had some positive things, particularly on kickoff returns. I thought we were in the top 5-10 in that for the better portion of the season. I thought Shaun Suisham was rock-solid all season. I thought our punt return game had potential but it never really developed. We had some explosion plays called back due to penalties, ones that we are responsible for. Then, Antonio Brown was limited with his injury for the better part of the second half of the season. That never really materialized. It is what it is. Like I said, we are an 8-8 team. We are on the outside looking in. we don't feel great about it. As a matter of fact, we dislike it. We are committed to doing what is required for us, in terms of moving forward, to ensure that we are not having similar conversations in the future. Moving forward, I will quickly outline a plan for you guys as we sit here today. We have a 60-day calendar to get this offseason started. We have a 2 p.m. team meeting today. We will summarize and start the exit procedure for our players. I look forward to having exit interviews with those guys. That will take up the bulk of this week and maybe even into next week. I always value those interactions. Those sit-downs, I have an opportunity to review, evaluate and plan, and just to hear from the men. Also, I will have an opportunity to sit down with coaches and do similar things with them. That probably won't transpire at until the very earliest, the latter parts of this week, but more probable next week. All of those things, the natural procedures, wrapping a bow around 2012, I expect our coaches to be doing the same things schematically, setting up schedules in terms of reviewing what it is that we do from a schematic standpoint and watching cut-ups. They will have exit interviews with some of the players that they work with. All in an effort to summarize, evaluate and think critically about what has transpired, so we can gather information to be better in 2013. I know there are some common business things that are transpiring this time of year, some questions that you might have, whether it be about coaches, players whose contracts are up, potential free agents and draft planning, I acknowledge that we are multi-tasking and working in all those areas, but I will also acknowledge that I don't have any concrete answers as I sit here today in regards to those things. I think a big component of us moving forward and being as good as we can be in 2013, is doing a great job of evaluating what has transpired here over the last 6-7 months. I intend to do that, first and foremost, over the course of the next week or two weeks.

Is the evaluation process intensified this offseason because of how the season went?
No, I take it very seriously, even in seasons where you could characterize it as success, even after the 2008 season where we were World Champions. This is a critical part of getting started in the right frame of mind and with the right vision with complete clarity for 2013. I can't tell you that my mentality regarding this process is any different than it normally is. Obviously, there is some urgency that's involved with what is happening.

With QB Ben Roethlisberger's shoulder and rib injuries, is any surgery required?
No.

Why did the offense struggle in the second half of the season?
We weren't as good as we were initially. We didn't coach as well, we didn't play as well. That's obvious. The result clearly exemplifies that. There were injuries at multiple positions. Obviously, we never use injuries as an excuse but we acknowledge that it was a component of maybe the degree of our success. I still thought we were capable of playing winning football because as professionals that's what we're expected and required to do. But it was myriad of things and I think that's what these upcoming days and weeks are about for us, taking the emotions out, looking at it critically and doing the type of self-examination necessary to move forward in a positive manner.

Did the lack of having a number one, go-to running back part of that equation?
Sure. I'm sure that would be a fair assessment. But there are also several reasons why that didn't occur, and just general ineffectiveness being one of them.

Are you happy with Dick LeBeau's performance this season?
I think everybody is aware that I'm happy with the work of Dick LeBeau. He's a special guy, a special man and a special coach.

Would you like to expedite the process of finding a new offensive line coach?
I'm not on any timetable there. I think it's important that we hire the right man. We're going to work swiftly but diligently. We're not going to put any time constraints on it. The big thing is that we come out of it with the correct man to move forward with that group in 2013. I don't have any preconceived notions in terms of the number of people I might interview and things of that nature or how it could transpire. Obviously, I've been gathering information informally. I'll continue to do that in a more formal manner here moving forward.

Do you expect Sean Kugler to take any coaches with him?
No.

How would you evaluate Todd Haley's performance this season and his relationship with his players?
It was about 8-8, like all of us. I'm a black-and-white kind of a guy. He was an 8-8 coordinator. I was an 8-8 head coach. I don't think that's what either of us desire to be. I don't think that we have players that desire to be 8-8 players. We're going to proceed with that understanding and with a mentality toward being better and maximizing our talents here to the best of our capabilities.

You went over and talked to NT Casey Hampton and LB Larry Foote at the end of the game yesterday. Do you appreciate the contributions of those guys who may or may not be back next season?
I was trying to figure out what they were doing, is why I went over there. I said, "Let's get out of here. What are you guys doing?" They were taking it in. They're veteran guys. They don't take any of this for granted, and rightfully so. Obviously, it's a very fragile business and an ever-changing business that we're in. It was a funny little exchange there but really nothing more than that. I've always wanted to appreciate the now. Hopefully, I'm the type of person that appreciates the contributions of men while I have them in the midst of it, the excitement that is the National Football League and the now. I've been around long enough to do that and I'm thankful that I have.

How do you take the emotion out of what you have to do now with evaluation process?
It's tough but necessary. Tough but necessary. It's a part of the job. It's a part of the business. I don't run away from it. I embrace it.

Has NT Steve McLendon shown that he is capable of being a starter?
We thought [McLendon] was solid enough and proved that he was solid enough to be a reason why we won this year. Nothing has transpired to change my feelings about Steve in that regard, and that's even with the inclusion of Casey on our team.

When guys who have been Foote's backup at inside linebacker get healthy do you see them being able to fill a starting role?
We've got some questions in that area. We've got some guys that are injured. We've got some guys that are free agents, so free agency could be a part of the discussion. So, I don't have great clarity in regards to that position and the depth at that position as I sit here.

Were there growing pains with the offense this year?
Certainly, but not that it is unexpected and not that it is an excuse, much like the injuries. I acknowledge that growing pains are a part of transition but I didn't believe that it would be significant enough to prevent us from winning and I still don't. It's not an excuse, much like the injuries.

What was the risk with Ryan Clark going to the hospital? Was it a blood clot?
It was a severe quad contusion and the potential things that could come from that. Of course, I don't want to speculate. That was the information that I received and that was the course of action that was taken. I'd be presuming if I went so far as to say blood clot or anything of that nature.

Do you feel like you were able to replace the leadership that you lost after last season?
I think we have quality leadership guys on our football team. Obviously, when you finish 8-8 after the transition that we had in that realm, it leaves you open to some questions. But I'm comfortable with the quality of leadership and players that we have on our football team. Obviously, I'm not comfortable with the result of our season. But I do think we have strong leadership candidates, strong professionals, guys that know what this thing is about and exemplify it on a day-to-day basis.

What are your thoughts on Bruce Arians and the situation with the Indianapolis Colts?
I'm happy for him and I'm happy for Chuck [Pagano]. Obviously, that's something that's transpired out there that is bigger than football and to see something as difficult as the situation that Chuck has gone through galvanize their team and maybe be a positive contribution to their efforts in some way, is encouraging and positive. But make no mistake, the fight that Chuck is going through is a significant one and is bigger than the job itself.

Re: S Troy Polamalu and LB James Harrison being healthy heading into the offseason:
I hadn't thought a lot about that but I will say this, it's good for any player to go into the offseason healthy, as opposed to going in the offseason with an injury situation to deal with it on any level. Whether it's a surgery, whether it's rest and recuperation, to go into the offseason with health is a positive thing in the National Football League. It's a good springboard for 2013 for those two.

Do you have any comment on the change at special teams coordinator right before the season began?
Nothing to add, other than what I said originally when it transpired. My feelings in that regard have not changed. I'll look at that area of our football team like I will look at any other area, in terms of reviewing the season and planning for 2013.

Do you consider the special teams coordinator an unfilled position? Will you be looking for a new one or are you going to keep things as they are?
I'm going to have a blank canvas in that regard. It's going to be a part of the evaluation process of the 2012 season, assessing the differences between that and multiple men moving forward.

How do you approach this offseason and the future with WR Mike Wallace?
Like we will all other potential free agents. We're going to communicate with them and make a decision whether or not they fit or he fits and kind of go from there. Obviously, free agency is what it is. It's a two-way street. They'll have an opportunity to decide where it is they'd like to continue their career. It's going to require some discussion, but discussion is not different than any other discussion we might have with any other potential free agent.

Does Wallace fit this offense and what Haley wants to do?
Certainly.

TEAM NOTES

All About Defense: The Pittsburgh Steelers yielded an NFL-low 275.8 yards per game in 2012, becoming the first team to lead the league in net yards allowed in 10 different seasons, including five times since Dick LeBeau returned to the Steelers in 2004 as defensive coordinator. Dating back to 1970, the 2012 season was the second time (2008) that Pittsburgh finished in the top two of fewest net yards, rushing yards and passing yards allowed.

Below are more statistical highlights for the Steelers' defense in 2012:

- Finished second in the AFC, giving up only 19.6 points per game.
- Led the NFL by only yielding 185.2 net passing yards per game.
- Finished second in the league in rush defense (90.6 yards per game).
- Allowed the fewest yards per pass attempt (6.04).
- Only gave up 19 pass plays of 25+ yards, the fewest in the NFL.
- Ranked third in the league by only yielding 31 running plays of 10+ yards.
- Only allowed 22 touchdowns inside the 20-yard line, the third-fewest in the AFC.
- Pittsburgh only allowed opponents to gain 1,376 yards after the catch, ranking second in the NFL.
- Steelers' opponents converted 35.4 percent of third downs, the fifth lowest in the league.

Among The Best: The Steelers have 599 career wins (including postseason), which is the fourth-most in NFL history.

The following is a list of the top five teams in the NFL for career wins (including postseason):

	Team	Wins
1.	Chicago Bears	739
2.	Green Bay Packers	720
3.	New York Giants	678
4.	Pittsburgh Steelers	599
5.	Washington Redskins	585

*Total includes 1943 season when Pittsburgh joined Philadelphia

Additionally, Pittsburgh owns the third-best regular season record in the NFL since the free-agency era (since 1993) with a 201-118-1 (.630) record. The Steelers are one of three teams (New England, 210 / Green Bay, 205) to recorded over 190 wins since 1993.

The following is a look at the top three regular-season records in the free agency era (since 1993):

	Team	W	L	T	Pct.
1.	New England Patriots	210	110	0	.656
2.	Green Bay Packers	205	115	0	.641
3.	Pittsburgh Steelers	201	118	1	.630

Limiting What Counts Most: Pittsburgh held its opponent to 20 points or less in 11 games in the 2012 regular season. The Steelers were 8-3 in 2012 when holding teams to 20 points or fewer. Pittsburgh allowed the sixth-fewest points per game last season (19.6) in the NFL and the second fewest in the AFC.

Pittsburgh has allowed the fewest points in the NFL since the beginning of the 2007 season, allowing just 1,589 points during that span.

The following is a list of the top four teams in the NFL who have allowed the fewest points since the start of the 2007 campaign:

Team	Points Allowed
Pittsburgh	1,589
Baltimore	1,769
New England	1,854
San Francisco	1,874

Controlling The NFC: The Steelers have won 29 of their past 36 regular-season games versus teams in the NFC, dating back to 2003, including a 3-1 record in 2012. Including the postseason, Pittsburgh has recorded at least three wins against NFC teams each season since 2004.

The Steelers are 102-61-1 all-time against the NFC, including 59-19-1 at home. Pittsburgh has won 11 of its last 14 games against NFC opponents.

The Steelers have nine consecutive home victories versus NFC teams. Pittsburgh last lost to an NFC team at Heinz Field in 2008 (21-14, vs. New York Giants). Prior to losing to the Giants, Pittsburgh had won eight straight games versus NFC teams at home. The Steelers are 6-2 versus the NFC in the Super Bowl.

Defense Feels At Home: The Steelers yielded only 119 points at home during the 2012 season. Pittsburgh's 14.9 points per game allowed at home were the third-fewest in the NFL and first in the AFC in 2012.

Team	Home GP	Points Per Game Allowed at Home
Seattle	8	11.9
San Francisco	8	13.9
Pittsburgh	8	14.9
Chicago	8	15.4

Since Dick LeBeau has been defensive coordinator (2004-present), the Steelers have allowed an average of 15.4 points per game at Heinz Field, which is the lowest in the NFL over that time span for points given up at home during the regular season.

Coach LeBeau's defenses have been consistently stingy at home over the last three seasons. In 2010 the Steelers allowed only 13.8 points per game, followed by 10.0 in 2011 and 14.9 in 2012. Holding away teams to under 15.0 points per game in each of the last three seasons ties 1992-94 (11.4, 12.1 and 13.0) for the second-longest streak of only giving up an average of less than 15.0 points per home game. The longest such streak in team history was eight years, 1972-79 (10.3, 13.8, 9.4, 13.3, 9.9, 14.9, 13.4 and 10.5).

Part Of The Challenge: From the minute training camp opened in Latrobe, Pittsburgh dealt with a serious number of injuries in 2012. LB James Harrison and LB Jason Worilds missed most, if not all, of training camp due to injuries.

Harrison missed three games during the regular season and fellow former Defensive MVP, S Troy Polamalu, missed nine. Steelers' 2012 first-round pick, G David DeCastro, who go hurt in the preseason, spent the first 11 games of the season on the Reserve/Injured; Designated to Return List before being reactivated. The Steelers third-round pick in the 2012 NFL Draft, LB Sean Spence, and TE/FB David Johnson, who started all 16 games for the Steelers in 2011, also suffered injuries during the preseason and were sidelined all year. As the 2012 season progressed, starting T Marcus Gilbert, G Willie Colon, T Mike Adams and reserve LB Chris Carter were placed on injured reserve.

The injuries forced Pittsburgh to count on backups at quarterback, running back, wide receiver, tight end, tackle, guard, center, outside linebacker, cornerback and both safety positions during the 2012 season.

As the Steelers got players back from injury others were lost. Just as Pittsburgh saw the return of Polamalu for the win over the Ravens (Week 13), they lost CB Ike Taylor, who missed most of the final five games of the season.

Over the final three weeks of the season, the Steelers started two rookies on the right side of the offensive line, OT Kelvin Beachum and DeCastro, who had only played in four games since coming back from a knee injury. Pittsburgh was without its number one and three cornerbacks (Taylor and Cortez Allen) at Dallas, which created a starting opportunity for first-year CB Josh Victorian who was playing in his second career game after being promoted from the practice squad.

The Steelers even moved guys to different positions to cover for injured players. Maurkice Pouncey had started his entire career at center until Week 13 at Baltimore, when he moved to guard due to Colon's injury.

Below is a list of Steelers' players and how many games they missed during the 2012 season:

Player	Games Missed Due To Injury
Sean Spence	16 (IR)
David Johnson	16 (IR)
David DeCastro	11
Marcus Gilbert	11 (IR)
Troy Polamalu	9

Regular Starters in bold

Heinz Field Advantage: The Steelers own the best home record in the NFL with a 239-92-1 record (.721) since 1970. Pittsburgh started 4-0 at Heinz Field this season for the fourth time under Head Coach Mike Tomlin (2007, '09, '11). Since the start of the 2011 regular season the Steelers are 12-4 at home during the regular season, including a 5-3 record in 2012. Pittsburgh is 70-25-1 (.734) at home since Heinz Field opened in 2001.

The Steelers' .734 winning percentage in regular-season games at Heinz Field is the third-highest winning percentage of any team at a stadium since 1970 (min. 25 games).

Team	Stadium	Record	Win Pct.
New England Patriots	Gillete Stadium*	73-15-0	.830
Miami Dolphins	Orange Bowl	101-22-1	.819
Pittsburgh Steelers	Heinz Field	70-25-1	.734
Minnesota Vikings	Metropolitan Stadium	64-23-1	.733
L.A. Rams	LA Memorial Coliseum	53-20-2	.726

*current NFL stadium

Note: Ties prior to 1972 do not count in winning percentage

In the first six seasons under Tomlin, the Steelers won at least five games at home each season. The last time Pittsburgh did not win at least five home games in a season was 2003. Since 2004, Pittsburgh and New England are the only teams in the league to register at least five wins at home during each regular season.

Pittsburgh finished the 2004 regular season with an undefeated (8-0) home record for only the third time in team history and for the first time in 25 years.

The Steelers finished the 1979 regular season with an undefeated home record (8-0) and eventually won Super Bowl XIV. The Steelers were also undefeated at home (7-0) in 1972.

The following is a look at the list of the Steelers' records at home since 2004:

Year	Record
2004	8-0
2005	5-3
2006	5-3
2007	7-1
2008	6-2
2009	6-2
2010	5-3
2011	7-1
2012	5-3

If You Build It, They Will Come: The Steelers averaged 61,141 fans in eight home games during the 2012 season. It was the 11th time in 12 seasons at Heinz Field that Pittsburgh averaged over 61,000 fans per game.

In the 2010 AFC Championship victory over the N.Y. Jets, the Steelers broke the single-game record. The attendance of 66,662 surpassed the old mark of 65,597 set October 25, 2009, during a game versus the Minnnesota Vikings.

The previous regular-season record was 65,392, which was set on November 16, 2009 versus Cincinnati.

Pittsburgh set the team home attendance record in 2009 by averaging 63,458 (507,882 total). Pittsburgh has sold out 309 straight games at home, dating back to Nov. 5, 1972 versus Cincinnati.

Following is a look at the team's average attendance in its 10-plus years at Heinz Field:

Year	Total Attendance	Avg.
2001	499,191	62,399
2002	490,274	61,284
2003	477,584	59,698
2004	507,385	63,423
2005	507,434	63,429
2006	499,461	62,433

Continued Success: With a victory over the Washington Redskins in Week 8, the Steelers became the first team to reach 400 wins since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues.

The following is a look at the top-three regular-season records since the merger in 1970:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
1. Pittsburgh Steelers	404	258	2	.610
2. Miami Dolphins	392	270	2	.592
3. Dallas Cowboys	389	275	0	.586

Regular-Season Success: Pittsburgh owns the second-best regular-season record in the NFL since 2000. The Steelers have earned eight playoff berths, six division titles and two Super Bowl victories in that time period.

The following are the top-five teams in regular-season winning percentage from 2000-Present:

*Made the 2012 Playoffs

In the Red Zone: The Steelers converted 45-of-49 red zone opportunities into points during the 2012 regular season. Pittsburgh's scoring percentage of 91.8 was the fourth highest in the NFL. The only four times they did not score points in the red zone was when they ended the game by taking a knee, had a 15-point lead with 29 seconds left in the game and decided to run the ball on 4th-and-8, when the they failed to convert a fake field goal and they had a field goal deflected.

Following is a look at how the Steelers offense performed in the red zone during the 2012 season:

Opponent	Att./Scores	TDs	FGs	Pts
@ Denver	4/4	2	2	19
New York Jets	3/3	2	1	17
@ Oakland	4/4	3	1	24
Philadelphia	4/4	1	3	16

Cincinnati	2/1	0	1	3
Cleveland	3/3	3	0	21
Total	49/45	27	18	242

Red Zone Defense: The Steelers only allowed 22 touchdowns inside the 20-yard line this season, the third fewest in the AFC. Over the last 11 games of the 2012 season the Steelers defense only allowed opponents to enter the red zone 25 times and yielded only 12 touchdowns. In Week 13 and 17 victories over Baltimore and Cleveland, as well as a Week 16 loss to Cincinnati, Pittsburgh's defense limited the Ravens, Browns and Bengals to one trip inside the 20-yard line each and only allowed one field goal and a touchdown. In Week 14 the Steelers only allowed San Diego into the red zone twice.

Following is a look at how the Steelers' defense performed in the red zone during the 2012 season:

Opponent	Att./Scores	TDs	FGs	Pts
@ Denver	4/3	2	1	17
New York Jets	2/2	1	1	10
@ Oakland	4/4	3	1	24

STEELERS TRAVEL TO LONDON IN 2013

The Pittsburgh Steelers will travel to London to take on the Minnesota Vikings at historic Wembley Stadium on Sunday, September 29, 2013. Kickoff is set for 1 p.m. ET. It will be the first of two regular-season games played at Wembley Stadium next season with the Jacksonville Jaguars hosting the San Francisco 49ers on October 27, 2013.

"We are thrilled that our players and Steelers fans around the world will be able to enjoy the atmosphere at historic Wembley Stadium," said Steelers President Art Rooney II.

The game will mark the first time the Steelers have played in London, as well as the first time they have played a regular season game outside of the United States. The international series of regular-season games to date has contributed to increased NFL fan interest in the UK, with a current fan base of 11 million, including more than two million avid fans, a 32 percent increase in the past two years.

The following is a list of the previous games the Steelers have played internationally since 1965, all taking place during the preseason:

Date	Location	Opponent	Result
August 14, 2008	Toronto	Buffalo	L, 24-21
August 19, 2000	Mexico City	Indianapolis	L, 24-23
July 27, 1997	Dublin	Chicago	W, 30-17
July 27, 1996	Tokyo	San Diego	L, 20-10
August 1, 1993	Barcelona	San Francisco	L, 21-14
August 9, 1990	Montreal	New England	W, 30-14
September 11, 1969	Montreal	N.Y. Giants	W, 17-13

COACHING NOTES

Good First Six: Head Coach Mike Tomlin has accomplished a lot in his first six seasons as head coach of the Steelers. Tomlin's 63 wins, four playoff appearances and three division titles are the second most in franchise history. His two Super Bowl appearances also are a franchise best for a coach in his first six seasons.

Below is how Tomlin ranks among Steelers' coaches after their first six seasons:

Head Coach	Record
Bill Cowher (1992-2006)	64-32 (.667) (1992-1997)
Mike Tomlin (2007-present)	63-33 (.656) (2007-2012)
Buddy Parker (1957-1964)	39-34 (.534) (1957-1962)
Chuck Knoll (1969-1991)	43-40 (.518) (1969-1974)

Head Coach	Super Bowl App.	Super Bowl Wins
Mike Tomlin	2 (2008, '10)	1 (2008)
Chuck Knoll	1 (1974)	1 (1974)
Bill Cowher	1 (1995)	0

Head Coach	Playoff Appearances
Bill Cowher	6 (1992-97)
Mike Tomlin	4 (2007, '08, '10, '11)
Chuck Knoll	3 (1972, '73, '74)
Buddy Parker	1 (1962)

Head Coach	Division Titles
Bill Cowher	5 (1992, '94-'97) (AFC Central)
Mike Tomlin	3 (2007, '08, '10) (AFC North)
Chuck Knoll	2 (1972, '74) (AFC Central)

In The Division: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns an 25-11 all-time mark against teams in the AFC North. Tomlin's 25 regular-season wins against division opponents are tied for the third most in the NFL and the most of any AFC North team since 2007 (Baltimore: 22-14 / Cincinnati: 17-19 / Cleveland: 8-28).

Tomlin has won at least four games against division opponents in four of his first six seasons. Tomlin owns an impressive 13-5 record against divisional foes at Heinz Field.

Tomlin Versus the NFC: During his career, Head Coach Mike Tomlin's regular-season record against the NFC is 17-7, including 11-1 at home. The Steelers finished 3-1 against the NFC in 2012. Over the past three regular seasons, the Steelers are 12-4 against the NFC.

The Steelers .708 regular-season winning percentage against the NFC since 2007 is tied for the second-best among AFC teams.

Team	W	L	Pct.
New England	19	5	.792
Pittsburgh	17	7	.708
Tennessee	17	7	.708
Baltimore	16	8	.667

Among The Best: Since Mike Tomlin was named head coach of the Steelers in 2007, Pittsburgh has compiled the third-most wins in the NFL during that time span (63). The following is the top three regular-season records in the NFL since 2007:

Team	Record	Playoff App.	Super Bowl App.
NE	76-20	5*	2
GB	66-30	5*	1
PIT	63-33	4	2

*Made the playoffs in 2012

Tomlin also has the fourth-highest regular-season winning percentage (.656) amongst active NFL head coaches who have coached a minimum of 40 regular-season games:

Name	W	L	T	Win Pct.
Mike Smith (ATL 2008-12)	56	24	0	.700
John Harbaugh (Bal 2008-12)	54	26	0	.675
Mike McCarthy (GB 2006-12)	74	38	0	.661
Mike Tomlin (Pit 2007-12)	63	33	0	.656
Bill Belichick (Cle 1991-95, NE 2000-12)	187	101	0	.649
Andy Reid (Phi 1999-12, KC 2013)	130	93	1	.583

Tomlin reached 60 regular-season wins in 88 games, tying Chuck Knox (88) for the fourth-fewest games to reach 60 career victories among coaches who began their career since 1970. The coaches who began their career since 1970 to win 60 games in the fewest games:

Our House: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns a 36-12 regular-season record at Heinz Field in his six seasons in Pittsburgh. In 2012, Tomlin won his first four home games for the fourth time in his career (2007, '09 and '11). Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to at least five home wins in each of his first six seasons as head coach.

Tomlin's 36 home wins during the regular season are tied for the fourth-most in the NFL since 2007. Below is a look at the best home records during the regular season since 2007:

Team	W	L	Pct.
New England	42	6	.875
Green Bay	39	9	.813
Baltimore	37	11	.771
Pittsburgh	36	12	.750
Atlanta	36	12	.750

With a win in Week 2 over the New York Jets, Tomlin became the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers.

For the second time in the Tomlin era, the Steelers finished 7-1 at home in 2011 (2007).

Primetime Specialist: For the second consecutive season, the Steelers played five regular-season games in primetime. Head Coach Mike Tomlin is 20-10 overall in primetime games, including a 10-6 record on the road. He is 7-1 on Monday Night Football, 8-7 on Sunday Night Football and 5-2 on Thursday Night Football.

Tomlin joined only Bill Cowher (Steelers), Tom Flores (Raiders), Steve Mariucci (49ers), George Siefert (49ers) and Don Shula (Colts, Dolphins) as coaches to win their first six Monday Night Football games.

Strong Out Of The Gate: Head Coach Mike Tomlin is the only Steelers head coach to win his first six home openers. In each of his six seasons as head coach Tomlin has led the Steelers to at least six wins in their first nine games of the season.

In 2012, for only the second time as head coach, Tomlin lost the season opener. In 2011, after the Steelers lost in Week 1 at Baltimore, Pittsburgh responded with a 24-0 win over Seattle at home. Duriong the 2012 season they beat the New York Jets at home in Week 2.

Tomlin led Pittsburgh to a 12-4 record three times in his first five years as head coach of the Steelers (2008, 10). The 2011 season also marked the second time in team history that the Steelers recorded back-to-back regular seasons with at least 12 wins (1978, 14-2 and 1979, 12-4).

Under Tomlin, Pittsburgh has recorded a 9-3 record in the first 12 games four times. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers' history to lead his team to at least nine wins through the first 12 games in four of his first five seasons.

High Honor Roll: Defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August of 2010. LeBeau had an outstanding NFL career, finishing with 62 career interceptions (seventh all-time) and 171 consecutive starts (then-NFL record for a cornerback) with the Detroit Lions.

LeBeau was also inducted into the Ohio State University Hall of Fame in 2009. He played at Ohio State as a cornerback and halfback and was a member of the 1957 national championship team.

Defensive Mastermind: The Steelers defense has been led by defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau since 2004. During that time span it has been regarded as one of the top defenses in the NFL, helping to lead the Steelers to three Super Bowls. Below is how the LeBeau's defenses rank since the start of the 2004 season:

Third-Down Success: In the 13 games QB Ben Roethlisberger played in 2012, he was 75-of-124 (60.5 pct.) for 918 yards, 10 touchdowns, one interception and a passer rating of 106.9 on third downs. Roethlisberger's passer rating of 106.9 on third downs was the third highest of his career (114.2 in 2010 and 107.8 in 2007). His 10 touchdown passes on third down were the second most he has thrown for on third down in a single season (13 in 2007). In 2012 Roethlisberger's one interception thrown on third down tied for the fewest of his career (one in 2010).

Roethlisberger ranked third in the league in passer rating on third down. He was one of four quarterbacks in 2012 to record a passer rating above 97.0 on third down. Below is a list of the leading passer ratings on third down for the 2012 season (min. 50 att.):

Player	Team	Third-Down QB Rating
Tom Brady	New England	110.8
Aaron Rodgers	Green Bay	110.8
Ben Roethlisberger	Pittsburgh	106.9
Peyton Manning	Denver	101.6

For his career, Roethlisberger has a passer rating of 92.4 on third down, ranking fourth among active quarterbacks (min. 335 attempts). He also ranks fifth among active quarterbacks with a 61.3 career completion percentage on third down (min. 335 attempts).

Controlling The North: QB Ben Roethlisberger is 35-10 (.778) as a starter against AFC North opponents during his career. He is 11-3 since 2010 against divisional foes during the regular season, including 2-1 in 2012. Roethlisberger has finished with an above .500 record against division opponents during the regular season in seven of his nine years, including winning at least five games four times.

Home Cooking: QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 49-15 (.766) mark in the regular season in his career at Heinz Field, including winning his first eight starts as a rookie in 2004. Roethlisberger was 5-2 at home in 2012 and 6-1 in 2011. In seven home games this season, Roethlisberger recorded 1,440 passing yards, 14 touchdown passes, three interceptions and a passer rating of 97.2.

At Heinz Field, Roethlisberger has completed 63.0 percent of his passes for 15,135 yards with 100 touchdowns and 49 interceptions for a passer rating of 95.2. He has thrown for more than 300 yards 11 times and has 30 multi-touchdown games at home (24-6 record in such games), including a franchise and career-high (tied) five touchdowns versus the Titans in Week 5 (2011).

Roethlisberger has twice posted a perfect passer rating at home, including most recently in Week 9 of 2007 against Baltimore. He also had a perfect passer rating (158.3) against Tennessee in the 2005 season opener and has posted at least a 125.0 passer rating eight times.

The Steelers have scored at least 20 points in 50 of the 64 games at home with Roethlisberger as the starter.

300-Yard Plateau: QB Ben Roethlisberger has registered 23 300+ yard passing games in his career during the regular season, including throwing for 384 yards at Oakland in Week 3, 363 yards at Tennessee in Week 6 and 339 yards at Dallas in Week 15 this year.

In 2011 Roethlisberger recorded five 300+ yard passing performances, which tied his career high for a single season.

In Weeks 7 and 8 last season, Roethlisberger became the first Steelers' quarterback to register at least 360 passing yards in back-to-back games (361, 365). For his career, Roethlisberger has thrown for at least 360 yards 12 times, a franchise best.

Good Way To Start: QB Ben Roethlisberger performed well in the first half of games during the 2012 season. In 13 games played, Roethlisberger recorded first-half passer ratings over 100.0 five times: 126.0 (Week 2 vs. NYJ), 120.4 (Week 8 vs. Was), 110.6 (Week 3 at Oak), 104.9 (Week 17 vs. Cle) and 101.0 (Week 1 at Den). Roethlisberger's 126.0 passer rating in Week 2 marked the 22nd regular-season game where he registered a passer rating of at least 125.0 in the first half.

Roethlisberger has totaled 1,774 passing yards while completing 159-of-256 passes with 14 touchdowns, three interceptions and a passer rating of 96.1 in 13 first halves this season.

Roethlisberger has a career passer rating of 95.6 in the first half of games, ranking fifth in the NFL among active quarterbacks (min. 670 attempts):

Player	Team	QB Rating
Aaron Rodgers	Green Bay	106.3
Tom Brady	New England	97.9
Peyton Manning	Denver/Indianapolis	97.7
Drew Brees	New Orleans	96.2
Ben Roethlisberger	Pittsburgh	95.6

Roethlisberger led the Steelers offense to points on 54-of-124 first-half possesions (30 TDs, 24 FGs) over the last 21 games he has played in, including the 2011 and 2012 regular seasons. In Week 8 of the 2012 season vs. Washington Roethlisberger guided the Steelers offense to scores on their first four possessions (two touchdown passes, two field goals). The Steelers offense scored in the final two minutes of the first half in 11 games in 2012.

Roethlisberger threw for at least one touchdown in 12 of 13 first halves he played in during the 2012 season. Four times in his career Roethlisberger has recorded at least three touchdown passes in the first half.

Facing The NFC: With a career record of 86-38 as a starter, QB Ben Roethlisberger has posted gaudy numbers no matter the opposition.

Throughout his career, Roethlisberger has feasted on competition from the NFC. In 32 career regular-season games against NFC opponents, Roethlisberger has posted a 24-8 record while completing 548-of-883 passes (62.1 pct.) for 7,227 yards with 45 touchdowns, 22 interceptions and a passer rating of 94.5.

Roethlisberger's statistics against the NFC are equally impressive in games at Heinz Field. In 16 career games against NFC opponents at home, Roethlisberger has a 15-1 mark while completing 262-of-435 passes (60.2 pct.) for 3,568 yards with 21 touchdowns and eight interceptions for a passer rating of 94.9.

Roethlisberger won his first seven starts against NFC teams.

Title Man: QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers to the AFC Championship Game four times in his first nine seasons. He is one of only three active NFL quarterbacks to win multiple Super Bowl titles (Tom Brady, Eli Manning).

Roethlisberger joined Roger Staubach, Bernie Kosar, Tom Brady and Donovan McNabb as the only quarterbacks to lead their teams to the conference title game at least three times in their first five seasons as the starting quarterback.

Movin' On Up: QB Ben Roethlisberger leads the Steelers in nearly 40 different career categories and is tied for first in five other categories. The following is where Roethlisberger ranks in Steelers history in several key passing categories:

 NFL Record*

Passing Perfection: QB Ben Roethlisberger has achieved a number of outstanding single-season accomplishments in his career, including achieving a feat three times that is rarely done in the NFL.

Roethlisberger, who set the team's single-season mark for passer rating (104.1) in 2007, has had a perfect passer rating (158.3) three times in his career, tying him with QB Peyton Manning for the most in NFL history (minimum 10 attempts).

Roethlisberger's 50 career 100-plus passer rating games in the regular season rank first in team history, surpassing Terry Bradshaw, who had 31 such games since the passer rating rule was implemented in 1973. Of his 50 100-plus passer rating performances 18 were higher than 125.0, including registering a rating of 125.1 in a win over the New York Jets in Week 2 this season.

During the 2012 season, Roethlisberger played in 13 games and recorded a passer rating over 120.0 four times, tying for the second-most times he recorded a rating of 120.0+ in the same regular season (four in 2004 / five in 2009). Roethlisberger finished the 2012 season with a passer rating of 97.0, which tied (2010) for the fifth-highest passer rating of his career.

Deadly Combination: QB Ben Roethlisberger and WR Mike Wallace have combined for 14 touchdowns of at least 40 yards since the start of 2009, including three in 2012. The 14 touchdowns rank first in team history.

During the 2012 season the two recorded a 40-yard touchdown in Week 14 vs. San Diego, a 82-yard touchdown in Week 6 at Tennessee, which is the fourth longest pass play of Roethlisberger's career, and a 51-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter against the Giants in Week 9. The two connected for eight touchdowns in just 12 games that they played together in 2012.

In 2011, Roethlisberger and Wallace recorded three touchdowns of at least 40 yards. In 2011, Roethlisberger and Wallace connected on a 95-yard touchdown at Arizona, the longest pass play and second-longest offensive play from scrimmage in Steelers history. The following is a list of the top QB-WR combos in terms of touchdowns of 40 yards in club history:

Quarterback/Wide Receiver	Career TDs of 40-plus yds.
Ben Roethlisberger/Mike Wallace	14
Bubby Brister/Louis Lipps	7
Terry Bradshaw/John Stallworth	6

Best of the Batch: QB Charlie Batch has a 25-30 record as a starting quarterback, including a 6-3 record in his nine seasons with Pittsburgh. In his nine career starts with the Steelers, Batch is 137-of-221 (62.0 pct.) for 1,652 yards with nine touchdowns and 11 interceptions (75.4 passer rating).

With the Week 13 victory at Baltimore during the 2012 season, Batch is 3-2 as the Steelers starter since 2010. Batch threw for 276 yards against the Ravens, the most passing yards he threw since 11/18/01 at Arizona (436) when he was a member of the Detroit Lions. Batch has thrown for over 200 yards in two of his last three starts (208 vs. StL in 2011).

He started two games in 2010 for the Steelers (Weeks 3-4) and went 1-1 in those two starts. In 2011, Batch filled in for an injured Ben Roethlisberger in Week 15 vs. St. Louis and led the Steelers to a 27-0 win while throwing for 208 yards on 15-of-22 passing (68.1).

Miller Time: TE Heath Miller has been a consistent performer for the Steelers throughout his career and that continued in 2012 when Miller was named Steelers MVP and selected to his second career Pro Bowl. Miller's 71 receptions on the season led the team and ranked second in the AFC among tight ends.

In 2012, Miller set career highs with 816 receiving yards and eight touchdown receptions. Miller's 816 receiving yards led all AFC tight ends and his eight touchdowns were second-most in the AFC amongst tight ends.

- Miller played in 15 games in 2012 and registered at least six receptions five times. From 2010-11, he had only registered six-plus receptions once in 30 games played. The only other time Miller has tallied at least six receptions in five games was in 2009.
- Miller registered at least four receptions in a career-best 12 games during the 2012 season. It was only the second time in his career that he recorded 4+ receptions in at least eight games (11 in 2009).
- Has recorded 5+ receptions in four straight games (Weeks 12-15) for the second time in his career (2009, Weeks 4-7).
- In a Week 13 victory at Baltimore, Miller totaled a game-high 97 yards on five receptions with one touchdown. It was the third most receiving yards Miller registered during the regular season in his career (118 vs. GB, 12/20/09 / 101 vs. Mia, 9/7/06). Two weeks later Miller registered 92 yards on seven receptions and one touchdown at Dallas. It was only the second time in his career that Miller registered at 90 receiving yards in two games in the same season (2009).
- Miller recorded six receptions in Week 6 and Week 7, marking the first time in his career that he has totaled at least six receptions in back-to-back games in the same season.
- For the first time in his career, Miller recorded a touchdown in each of the first three games of the season, tying for the second-longest streak of his career in which he recorded at least one receiving touchdown (Games 4-6 in 2009 / Games 4-7 in 2005).
- Both of Miller's touchdowns in Week 3 at Oakland came in the first quarter, making him the first Steelers' player since WR Plaxico Burress (10/31/04) to register two receiving touchdowns in the first quarter.

Miller Climbs The Ranks: TE Heath Miller has 39 career receiving touchdowns, passing Elbie Nickel (37) for the most by a Pittsburgh tight end and tying Louis Lipps for the fifth-most in franchise history. The Steelers are 26-9 when Miller finds the end zone.

Miller (408) passed Nickel (329) for the franchise lead in receptions by a tight end in 2011. He ranks in the top-10 in franchise history in receptions (3rd, 408), receiving yards (7th, 4,680) and receiving touchdowns (T-5th, 39).

Miller has registered at least one reception in 127-of-135 career games played, including the postseason. Miller has recorded at least one reception in every game he has played in, regular and postseason, dating back to 11/3/08 vs. Washington, a streak of 73 games.

Since 2008, Miller has surpassed 40 receptions each season, including a career-best 76-reception performance in 2009. During the first eight years of his career, Miller averaged over 10 yards per catch each season including 11.5 yards per catch in 2012.

Wallace Continues To Thrive: WR Mike Wallace continues to contribute in big way for the Steelers. Despite missing one game during the 2012 season, Wallace tied for first on the team in touchdown receptions (8), third in receptions (64) and first in receiving yards (836). Wallace tied his single-game career high of eight receptions twice in 2012 and five times in his career.

Wallace followed up his breakout 2010 season with a stellar 2011, recording a career-high 72 receptions for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns. He was named a starter for his first career Pro Bowl, becoming the first Steelers wide receiver to start in the Pro Bowl since 1985 when John Stallworth was named a starter.

In 2011, Wallace joined WR Antonio Brown (1,108 yards) as the third Steeler duo since 1960 to each register at least 1,100+ receiving yards in the same season (2002: Hines Ward, 1,329 / Plaxico Burress, 1,325 and 2009: Ward, 1,167 / Santonio Holmes, 1,248).

100 Is the Number: WR Mike Wallace registered two 100-yard games in 2012 to give him 14 for his career:

- In Week 3 at Oakland, he registered 123 yards on a career-high (tied) eight receptions. His 123 receiving yards were the fourth-highest single game total of his career.
- Wallace registered 112 receiving yards on seven receptions with two touchdowns vs. San Diego in Week 14.

Wallace's 14 career 100-yard receiving games during the regular season are two shy of Louis Lipps (16) for the third most in franchise history:

Rk.	Player	Years	Career 100-yard Receiving Games
1.	Hines Ward	1998-2011	29
2.	John Stallworth	1974-87	25
3.	Louis Lipps	1984-91	16
4.	Mike Wallace	2009-Present	14

Wallace posted 100 yards receiving in each of the first three games in 2011, setting a franchise-best streak of six consecutvie games with at least 100 yards receiving.

Wallace's six consecutive games with 100+ yards receiving tied the second longest streak in NFL history:

Player	Team	Year	100-yard Receiving Games In a Row
Charley Hannigan	Hou	1961	7
Michael Irvin	Dal	1995	7
Mike Wallace	Pit	2010-11	6
Raymond Berry	Bal	1960	6
Bill Groman	Hou	1961	6
Pat Studstill	Det	1966	6
Isaac Bruce	StL	1995	6

Speedy Start: WR Mike Wallace has been an explosive player since entering the NFL in 2009. He once again got off to a quick start this season, recording a touchdown in each of the first three regular-season games for the first time in his career. It was the second time in his career that he recorded at least one receiving touchdown in three consecutive games (Games 5-7 in 2011).

Wallace registered his fifth multi-touchdown performance versus San Diego in Week 14 (2 touchdowns). His eight touchdowns in 2012 tied for the second most (2011) he has recorded in his career (10 in 2010). Wallace's 32 receiving touchdowns since 2009 are tied for fifth in the NFL over that time period (Calvin Johnson, 38 / Rob Gronkowski, 38 / Roddy White, 36 / Marques Colston 34 / Antonio Gates 32).

In Week 6, Wallace registered the second-longest reception of his career, an 82-yard touchdown at Tennessee. Wallace added another expolsive play in a Week 9 victory over the New York Giants by recording a 51-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, and he went 40 yards for a touchdown versus San Diego in Week 14. Against Dallas in Week 15, Wallace set up a touchdown with a 60-yard reception to the Cowboys' two-yard line. Wallace has regsitered at least three receptions of 50 yards or more in each of his four seasons.

The fourth-year wide receiver is third in the league with 45 receptions of 25+ yards since the start of the 2009 season, trailing Calvin Johnson (53) and DeSean Jackson (49). Dating back to 1991, his 45 receptions of 25+ yards are second among Steelers (Hines Ward, 81).

In 2011, Wallace registered a reception of at least 40 yards in six consecutive games (Games 2-7), the longest such streak in the NFL since Isaac Bruce in 2000 (Games 2-7).

The following is a list of all of Wallace's receptions (27) of at least 40 yards:

Reception	Opponent	Date
95 yards (TD)	at Arizona	10/23/11
82 yards (TD)	at Tennessee	10/11/12

Brown Steps Up: WR Antonio Brown was a third-year player that continued to get better. His quick progression earned him a five-year contract extension that will keep him with the Steelers through 2017.

Although Brown missed three games this season with an ankle injury, he was second on the Steelers with 66 receptions for 787 yards (11.9 avg.) and a career-high five touchdowns in 2012.

Of Brown's 66 receptions, 43 of them went for first downs. Since the start of the 2011 season, Brown ranks seventh in the league with 74.1% of his receptions resulting in first downs (minimum 90 receptions).

Rk.	Player	1st Down%	Receptions
1.	Malcolm Floyd	88.9	99
2.	Vincent Jackson	87.1	132
3.	Rob Gronkowski	78.6	145
4.	Roddy White	78.1	192
5.	Calvin Johnson	77.5	218
6.	Lance Moore	76.9	117
7.	Antonio Brown	74.1	135

Brown led or tied for the team lead in receptions, receiving yards or both, eight times in 2012, including a season-high eight receptions for 76 yards and one touchdown at Dallas. In Week 16 vs. Cincinnati, Brown led the Steelers with a season-high 97 yards on six receptions.

In games 2-4 during the 2012 season, Brown registered seven receptions in each, marking the first time in his career that he recorded at least seven receptions in three consecutive games.

Center Of Attention: For the third consective season C Maurkice Pouncey was named to the Pro Bowl. It is his second selection as a starter. Pouncey is the first center in NFL history to be selected to a Pro Bowl in each of his first three seasons.

Pouncey is the anchor of the Steelers offensive line. He was also selected, along with LS Greg Warren, to the 2012 USA Football All-Fundamentals Team, which honors 26 NFL players who exhibit exemplary football techniques for youth players to emulate (11 offense, 11 defense and four special teams).

In 2010, he was the first Steelers rookie offensive lineman to make the Pro Bowl since offensive tackle Frank Varrichione in 1956 and the first Steelers rookie since linebacker Kendrell Bell in 2002.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENSIVE NOTES

Timmons Time: On a defense that has struggled to stay healthy over the last couple of seasons, LB Lawrence Timmons has been a player the Steelers can count on being in the lineup each week. In 2012, Timmons became the first player since Joey Porter in 2002 to lead the team or tie for the team lead in tackles, sacks and interceptions.

Timmons, who has missed only two games his entire career, has recorded a team-best 37 consecutive starts. Since the start of the 2010 season, Timmons has started (47) and played in (48) the most games out of any Steelers' linebackers, while also leading the group in tackles over that time.

While Timmons is a steady player that the defense can count on game-in and game-out, he also makes plays. During the 2012 season, Timmons:

- Led the team with 134 tackles on the season. It was Timmons' second 100+ tackle season of his career (149 in 2010).
- Tied for the team lead in sacks with six, the second-most he has recorded in one season (seven in 2009).
- Led the team with a career-high three interceptions.
- Led or tied for the team lead in tackles in nine games, including five of the final seven.
- Registered at least 10 tackles in five games (10 at Cin, 10 vs. Cin, 10 vs. Bal, 13 at Cle and 17 vs. SD).
- Recorded a career-high 17 tackles (14 solo) against San Diego in Week 14. It was the most tackles by a Steelers player since LB James Farrior totaled 17 stops against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers on December 3, 2006.
- Led all Steelers with eight tackles in a Week 13 victory in Baltimore while also registering two quarterback pressures.
- Recorded the first defensive touchdown of his career, a 53-yard interception return at Cleveland in Week 12.
- Recorded five sacks in the final three weeks of the season: one at Dallas, two vs. Cincinnati and two vs. Cleveland. It was the first time in his career that he registered at least one sack in three consecutive games. It also marked the first time that Timmons' registered two sacks in back-to-back games. Timmons has six multi-sack games in his career.
- Forced a fumble of Eagles QB Michael Vick (Week 5).
- Intercepted Tennessee QB Matt Hasselbeck in the fourth quarter (Week 6).
- Registered an 11-yard sack on QB Eli Manning on third down to force a punt early in the fourth quarter in a win at the Giants (Week 9).
- Returned an intereption 23 yards to the Kansas City five-yard line to set up the game-winning field goal in overtime (Week 10).

Tackling Machine: S Ryan Clark has teamed with perennial All-Pro Troy Polamalu to form one of the finest safety duos in the NFL. Since coming to the Steelers in 2006, Clark has started 94 of 95 regular-season games played, including all 16 in both 2010 and 2011.

After missing the 2012 season opener in Denver due to a health issue, Clark returned to the Steelers starting lineup and was a key part of a secondary that ranked number one in the NFL in pass defense despite being with out Polamalu for nine games in 2012. Below are some highlights from Clark's 2012 season:

- Finished third on the team with 106 tackles. It was the fifth consecutive season he recorded at least 100 tackles.
- Clark recorded at least seven tackles in nine games.
- He led or tied for the team lead in tackles in seven games, including a 13 tackle (10 solo) performance at Cleveland in Week 12 and an 11 tackle (9 solo) showing in Week 15 at Dallas.
- With two forced fumbles, Clark tied his career high set in 2005.
- Registered two interceptions, which tied (2010) for the second most he registered in a single season (three in 2005).
- In Week 3 at Oakland, he registered an interception off of QB Carson Palmer and returned it for a career long 26 yards to the Oakland 36-yard line, helping set up a Steelers' touchdown. It marked Clark's ninth interception as a Steeler, the 12th of his career and first since 10/23/11 at Arizona.
- In a Week 5 win over Philadelphia, Clark forced a Michael Vick fumble at the Steelers' one-yard line that LB Larry Foote recovered in the end zone for a touchback.
- He tied for the team lead with seven tackles in a victory over the Giants in Week 9 and led the Steelers with 10 tackles in a Week 10 win against the Kansas City Chiefs.
- Recorded his fifth career fumble recovery in Week 16 vs. Cincinnati. It was Clark's first fumble recovery since 2010.

Clark's stellar on field play mirrors what he does off the field in the community. Clark and his wife, Yonka, have turned their personal experiences with Sickle Cell trait into a mission to help others. The Clark's teamed up with the University of Pittsburgh and UPMC to create Ryan Clark's Cure League, which raises money for Sickle Cell research, clinical care and increases awareness about the disease. Clark is also active in many other community efforts including being the local spokesman for Dairy Management's Fuel Up to Play 60 program.

For his efforts Clark was named the Steelers 2012 Walter Payton Man of the Year. He is one of 32 NFL teams' Man of the Year winners who qualify for the league's national 2012 Walter Payton Man of the Year award. The award recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well his playing excellence. The overall winner will be announced during Super Bowl XLVII week in Indianapolis.

Keenan's Corner: CB Keenan Lewis was thrust into the starting lineup in 2012 and did not disappoint. Lewis started each game at left cornerback and was one of the main reasons the Steelers led the NFL in pass defense. He registered at least one pass defensed in 12 consecutive games.

He set career highs in starts (16) and tackles (78, fourth most on the team), and he led the team with a career-high 28 pass breakups.

In the second half of the season Lewis' put together a few steller performances:

- In Week 11 versus Baltimore he tied for the team lead with 10 tackles (eight solo), helping a defense that limited the Ravens to 200 total net yards.
- In Week 12 at Cleveland, Lewis registered 10 tackles again and one pass defensed, helping lead a secondary that limited the Browns to 130 net passing yards.
- Lewis was part of a secondary in Baltimore (Week 13) that stepped up when Ike Taylor got injured on the first series of game. Lewis and company held Ravens QB Joe Flacco to a passer rating of 61.9 and 188 passing yards.
- Led the Steelers with three passes defensed at Dallas in Week 15 and also recorded seven tackles.
- Despite missing practice time due to injury, recorded six tackles and two passes defensed vs. Cincinnati in Week 16.

Earlier in the season Lewis forced his first career fumble when he tackled and stripped Eagles' WR DeSean Jackson in Week 5.

In 2011, Lewis mainly served as the team's nickel-back, seeing action in all 16 games. He earned his first career start in Week 3 at Indianapolis where he recorded a season-high five tackles. In 2011, Lewis recorded 31 tackles, five pass breakups and had the game-clinching interception in Week 12 at Kansas City.

Not Backing Down: CB Ike Taylor is consistently matched up with the other team's top receiving threat, routinely minimizing their impact. Before missing the last four weeks of the 2012 season due to injury, Taylor had played in 135 consecutive games.

Taylor was part of a secondary that limited the Browns to 130 net passing yards in Week 12. The week before, Taylor primarily covered Ravens WR Torrey Smith and limited him to one reception for seven yards while being targeted seven times.

Against the Giants in Week 9, Taylor earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second time in his career (Wk. 5 vs. Seattle, 10/7/07) by intercepting QB Eli Manning once and registering five tackles. Taylor led a secondary that held Manning to a passer rating of 41.1, the sixth lowest rating of his career and the lowest since 11/25/07 against Minnesota (33.8).

In Week 8, Taylor helped the Steelers limit Redskins QB Robert Griffin III to season lows in quarterback rating (72.8), yards per attempt (5.2) and completion percentage (47.1) as well as his second fewest passing yards (177).

In a Week 6 victory at Cincinnati, Taylor was primarily matched up with WR A.J. Green, who entered the game averaging 104.7 receiving yards and 7.2 receptions per game. Against Taylor and the Steelers secondary Green hauled in one pass for an eight-yard touchdown. In Week 2 against the New York Jets, Taylor took on the challenge of covering receiver Santonio Holmes and held his former teammate to three receptions for 28 yards while being targeted 11 times.

Since Taylor became a regular starter (2005-present), the Steelers have led the league in pass defense, allowing only 191.3 net passing yards per game. Since 2005 Taylor has started 103 of the 124 regular season games he has played in. In those 124 games the defense only allowed seven players to record double-digit receptions in a single game. Also, in those 124 games, Pittsburgh's defense allowed only nine 300-yard passers, including only one in 2011 and none in the 12 games he played in in 2012.

Allen Steps In: CB Cortez Allen was a second-year player that has started to establish himself in the defensive backfield. Allen played in 15 games in 2012 and started three of the last four games in place of injured CB Ike Taylor.

Allen played his best in the final two weeks of the season, playing a role in five turnovers. In Week 16 vs. Cincinnati. With Taylor out, Allen primarily was matched up on WR A.J. Green. He registered two interceptions off of QB Andy Dalton and forced Green to fumble.

He first intercepted Dalton at the Bengals' 38-yard line on the first offensive play of the second half. Allen returned his first career interception six yards to the 32-yard line. His second interception came after CB Josh Victorian deflected a pass and Allen hauled it in on the Pittsburgh 23-yard line. Dating back to 2000, it was the 12th time a Steelers' player has recorded two interceptions in one game. Allen was the first player to record two interceptions in a game since S Troy Polamalu on 12/12/10 vs. Cincinnati.

Allen recorded his first career forced fumble when he stripped Green early in the fourth quarter. S Ryan Clark recovered the fumble and returned it two yards to the Steelers 28-yard line.

The following week vs. Cleveland Allen recorded a career-high eight tackles and forced two fumbles, one that was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons at the Browns' 24-yard line and the other Allen recovered himself and returned 21 yards to the Cleveland 27-yard line. Both turnovers resulted in Steelers' touchdowns on the ensuing drives.

Gotta Be Da Beard: DE Brett Keisel finished the 2012 season with a team and career-high 40 quarterback pressures. He registered 21 more quarterback pressures than LB Lawrence Timmons, who finished second on the team with 19. It is the most quarterback pressures by a Pittsburgh defender since LB James Harrison recorded 44 in 2008. Since the start of the 2011 season Keisel has totaled 77 quarterback pressures to lead the Steelers.

Keisel also led the defensive line with 58 tackles in 2012, tying (2006) for the second most he has registered in a single seaon in his career (63 in 2009). Keisel started and played in all 16 games for the third time in his career and the first time since 2007.

He recorded 1.5 sacks against Cincinnati and two sacks in a win over Kansas City. It was the first time in his career he registered at least 1.5 sacks in two games in one season. For his career, Keisel has registered at least 1.5 sacks in six games.

Taking The Lead: With the loss of long-time starting inside linebacker James Farrior, veteran LB Larry Foote was asked to step up from his recent supporting roll and back into the defensive leader in 2012. Foote finished the season second on the team in tackles (114) and forced fumbles (2, tied), while tying for the team lead in fumble recoveries (2). He also recorded four sacks on the season to tie his career high set in 2006. He surpassed 100 tackles for only the third time in his career (118 in 2006 and 123 in 2005).

In Week 1 at Denver, Foote exceeded expections, registering a team-high 12 tackles, one sack, one forced fumble, one QB pressure and one pass defensed. It was his first 10+ tackle game since 11/22/09 vs. Cleveland (12).

Twice in 2012 (Weeks 1 and 6) Foote recorded a sack and a forced fumble, marking the fourth and fifth times in his career, and the first since 12/2/07 vs. Cincinnati, that he registered a forced fumble and a sack in the same game.

In Week 3 at Oakland, Foote tied for the team lead with three quarterback hurries, while also chipping in eight tackles. A Week 5 win over Philadelphia saw Foote register a career-high two fumble recoveries. In a road win over the Giants in Week 9 Foote tied for the team lead with seven tackles.

In a Week 13 victory at Baltimore, Foote registered a sack and QB pressure. Foote finished the season with 10 tackles in a win vs. Cleveland, marking his second performance in 2012 with at least 10 tackles and the 17th of his career.

Climbing The Ranks: With a team-high six sacks (tied) in 13 games played during the 2012 season LB James Harrison has 64.0 for his career, passing Joey Porter for the second most by a Steelers' player since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Rk.	Player	Sacks
1.	Jason Gildon (1994-2003)	77.0
2.	James Harrison (2002-Present)	64.0
3.	Joey Porter (1999-2006)	60.0
4.	Keith Willis (1982-91)	59.0

Harrison registered two forced fumbles in 2012. In Week 13 at Baltimore when he sacked QB Joe Flacco early in the fourth quarter. The Steelers capitalized on the turnover with a touchdown to tie the game at 20. In Week 15, with Dallas on the Pittsburgh seven-yard line, Harrison forced a fumble of RB DeMarco Murray that was recovered by DE Brett Keisel at the eight-yard line.

Harrison's 28 forced fumbles rank second in team history for career forced fumbles, behind only Greg Lloyd. The following is a list of the top five career forced fumble leaders for the Steelers since 1987:

Rk.	Name	# of FF
1.	Greg Lloyd	36
2.	James Harrison	28
3.	Jason Gildon	18
4.	Rod Woodson	17
5.	Joey Porter	16
	Carnell Lake	16

Elite Company: LB LaMarr Woodley registered his 50th career sack in Week 3 at Oakland to become the eighth player in Steelers' history to reach the mark (including players that played before sacks became an official statistic in 1982).

Among Steelers to reach 50.0 sacks since 1982, Woodley got to the mark the fastest, reaching 50.0 in just 73 regular-season games played. Below is a list of the other Steelers who reached 50.0 career sacks since 1982 and how many games it took:

Player	Games To Get To 50.0 Sacks
LaMarr Woodley (2007-present)	73
Jason Gildon (1994-2003)	95
Keith Willis (1982-87, 89-91)	105
Joey Porter (1999-2006)	106
James Harrison (2002, 2004-11)	109
Greg Lloyd (1988-97)	119

Woodley's 52.0 sacks are the most by a Steelers' player in their first six seasons. The following is a breakdown of sacks in the history of the club in player's first two, three, four, five and six seasons (Kevin Greene had 35.5 sacks in his first three seasons with the team, but he had previously played with the L.A. Rams):

Most Sacks (two consecutive seasons)

Name	Sacks	Years
James Harrison	26.0	2008-09
Jason Gildon	25.5	2000-01
LaMarr Woodley	25.0	2008-09

Most Sacks (first three seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	29.0	2007-09
Keith Willis	20.0	1982-84

Most Sacks (first four seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	39.0	2007-10
Joey Porter	30.5	1999-02

Most Sacks (first five seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	48.0	2007-11
Keith Willis	37.5	1982-86
Joey Porter	35.5	1999-03

Most Sacks (first six seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	52.0	2007-12
Joey Porter	42.5	1999-04
Keith Willis	40.5	1982-87

Bringing The Wood: Although LB LaMarr Woodley only played in just over 11 games during the 2012 season (left Philadelphia game in the first quarter and game at Cleveland in second quarter), he registered 42 tackles, four sacks, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, 15 quarterback pressures and an interception.

In 2011, Woodley registered nine sacks through the first eight games. Woodley's nine sacks were the second most he recorded in the first eight games of a season during his career (9.5, 2008). Woodley's nine sacks also marked the fourth-highest total for a Steeler in the first half of a season since sacks became an official statistic in 1982:

Rk.	Player (Year)	Sacks in Games 1-8
1.	James Harrison (2008)	10.0
	Keith Willis (1983)	10.0
3.	LaMarr Woodley (2008)	9.5
4.	LaMarr Woodley (2011)	9.0

In 2011, Woodley became the first Steelers' player to register at least 1.5 sacks in four consecutive regular-season games since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. The last player in the NFL with more than one sack in four straight games was Simeon Rice in 2002 (five straight).

It's Worilds' World: LB Jason Worilds is limited in his defensive opportunities due to the players he backs up, Pro Bowl linebackers James Harrison and LaMarr Woodley. When Worilds does get his opportunity to play on defense he takes advantage.

Worilds has started 10-of-42 games played during the regular season since he entered the league in 2010. After recording five sacks in his first two seasons, Worilds finished third on the team with five sacks in 16 games in 2012, while also registering 26 tackles and eight quarterback pressures to go with four special teams tackles.

Twice during his career, Week 12 at Cleveland in 2012 and Week 14 versus the Browns in 2011, Worilds has regsitered two sacks in one game.

INDIVIDUAL SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Oh So Suisham: K Shaun Suisham was 28-of-31 on field goals during the 2012 season, with two of his misses coming from 53 and 54 yards away late in games at Tennessee and vs. Cincinnati. Earlier in the Titans game, Suisham tied his career-long with a 52-yard field goal. Suisham made 15 consecutive field goals during the 2012 season, which tied for the longest streak of his career (15, 12/28/08 thru 11/22/09 as a member of the Washington Redskins).

Suisham clinched a victory for the Steelers three times in 2012. He connected on a 42-yard field with no time on the clock to give the Steelers a 23-20 win at Baltimore (Week 13). His effort earned him AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for the second time this season (vs. Phi, Week 5) and the third time in his career (NFC, Week 9, 2007).

Three weeks earlier Suisham made a 23-yard field goal in overtime to beat Kansas City in Week 10. Suisham also recorded a 34-yard game-winning field goal to lift the Steelers to a 16-14 victory as time expired against Philadelphia in Week 5. Suisham has seven career game-winning field goals, including five as a Steeler.

Suisham has a current streak of 89 consecutive PATs made as a Steeler. Since October 4, 2009, Suisham has made 110 straight PATs, which is the longest streak of his career.

In addition to his place kicking, Suisham set a career high with 29 touchbacks in 2012.

Rookie Returner: RB Chris Rainey emerged as a threat on kickoff returns in 2012. The rookie running back/returner recorded 1,035 yards on kickoff returns during the 2012 season, passing Rod Woodson (982 in 1989) for the third-most yards on kickoff returns in a single season by a Steelers' player.

Rk.	Player	Kickoff Return Yards
1.	Stefan Logan (2009)	1,466
2.	Ernie Mills (1995)	1,306
3.	Chris Rainey (2012)	1,035
4.	Rod Woodson (1989)	982
5.	Larry Anderson (1978)	930

Rainey's 26.5 average per kick return tied Sid Watson (1955) for the eighth highest single season average in Steelers' history.

In a Week 13 victory at Baltimore, Rainey registered a 42-yard kickoff return to the Pittsburgh 40-yard line following a Baltimore touchdown. The Steelers would turn the good field position into a field goal to pull with seven heading into halftime.

Before leaving the game in the third quarter with a rib injury against the New York Giants in Week 9, Rainey registered 173 yards on five kickoff returns, marking the fifth most kickoff return yards by a Steelers' player in a single game, dating back to 1941. He recorded a 50-yard kickoff return to the Giants 48-yard line in the middle of the second quarter and a career long 68-yard kickoff return to New York's 35-yard line to start the second half.

In the Week 7 victory at Cincinnati, Rainey helped set up two Steelers' scoring drives, that both resulted in field goals, with good field position by recording a 41-yard return to the Steelers' 40-yard line and a 36-yard return to the Pittsburgh 39-yard line. During the 2012 season, Rainey had six returns over 40 yards:

Opponent	Yards	Yard Line Returned To	Result of Ensuing Drive
@ N.Y. Giants	68	NYG 35	Punt
@ N.Y. Giants	50	NYG 48	Fumble (Roethlisberger)

Preseason Game #1

Philadelphia 24, Pittsburgh 23
Aug. 9, 2012
Lincoln Financial Field (69,144)

PHILADELPHIA – K Alex Henery nailed a 51-yard field goal with 12 seconds left in the game to give the Eagles a 24-23 victory over the Steelers in the 2012 preseason opener.

The Steelers got off to a great start and went up 3-0 when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 46-yard field goal midway through the first quarter. Early in the second quarter, QB Byron Leftwich found WR Emmanuel Sanders for a two-yard touchdown pass to give the Steelers a 10-0 lead. DE Al Woods' interception of QB Mike Kafka set up a Suisham 31-yard field goal, and the Steelers went into halftime with a 13-0 lead.

The Eagles responded with two big pass plays in the third quarter by QB Nick Foles. In a span of three minutes, Foles found WR Damaris Johnson for a 70-yard touchdown and WR Mardy Gilyard for a 44-yard touchdown to put the Eagles up 14-13. Foles finished with a game-high 144 passing yards and two touchdowns.

QB Jerrod Johnson found RB Chris Rainey on a slip screen for a 57-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 20-14 lead late in the third quarter. Johnson finished the game with a team-high 93 passing yards and registered 26 rushing yards. Rainey finished with a team-high 65 receiving yards.

The Eagles took the lead back with about five minutes remaining when QB Trent Edwards found WR Jamel Hamler for a 16-yard score. Steelers appeared to have the game won when rookie K Daniel Hrapmann nailed a 43-yard field goal right after the two-minute warning but Edwards led the Eagles down the field to set up Henery's game-winning field goal.

Despite being outgained in total yards, the Steelers defense had a strong showing. They held the Eagles to only one third-down conversion, 74 rushing yards and forced seven punts.

Preseason Game #2

Pittsburgh 26, Indianapolis 24
Aug. 19, 2012
Heinz Field (54,559)

PITTSBURGH – K Daniel Hrapmann nailed a 22-yard field goal with 22 seconds left in the fourth quarter to give the Steelers a 26-24 victory in their 2012 preseason home opener.

The Steelers took a 14-point lead in the first quarter thanks to two big plays. QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown on a screen pass for a 57-yard touchdown. Late in the first quarter, CB Ike Taylor picked off QB Andrew Luck and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown.

The Colts responded with 17 unanswered points on two rushing touchdowns and a field goal. RB Donald Brown scored on a one-yard run early in the second quarter, and Luck scored on a one-yard run right after the two-minute warning. As time expired in the second quarter, K Adam Vinatiere connected on a 53-yard field to give the Colts a 17-14 lead going into the half.

Early in the third quarter, Hrapmann connected on a 39-yard field goal to tie the game 17-17. But the Colts scored on their next drive to take a 24-17 lead as QB Drew Stanton found WR Griff Whalen for a four-yard touchdown.

Hrapmann connected from 39 yards out late in the third quarter and from 43 yards out early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 24-23. The Colts were driving with five minutes to play and found themselves at the Steelers' 31-yard line until CB Josh Victorian picked off QB Chandler Harnish's pass. QB Jerrod Johnson then led the Steelers on a 15-play, 65-yard drive to set up Hrapmann's game-winning field goal.

The Steelers defense and special teams had a big showing. The defense had three interceptions, eight passes defensed and held the Colts to 85 yards rushing. The special teams unit had seven total tackles, held the Colts to less than 100 combined total punt and kickoff return yards and had a blocked punt that set up a third-quarter field goal.

Preseason Game #3
Pittsburgh 38, Buffalo 7
Aug. 25, 2012
Ralph Wilson Stadium (67,383)

ORCHARD PARK – Trailing 7-0 midway through the second quarter, the Steelers offense scored 38 unanswered points to beat the Buffalo Bills 38-7 at Ralph Wilson Stadium.

The Bills scored first when RB Fred Jackson rushed for a one-yard touchdown to put Bills up 7-0 but it would be the last points Buffalo would score. LB Lawrence Timmons forced a fumble that was recovered by DE Ziggy Hood, which set up the Steelers in Bills' territory.

RB Isaac Redman scored on a two-yard run five plays later to tie the game 7-7. With less than two minutes remaining in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the team on an 11-play, 98-yard drive that was capped off with a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown and the Steelers went into halftime with a 14-7 lead.

S Troy Polamalu's interception of QB Vince Young set up the Steelers third score of the contest. On the first play after the interception, QB Byron Leftwich found Brown for a 39-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 21-7. Brown finished with game highs in receptions (7), receiving yards (108) and receiving touchdowns (2).

S Robert Golden's interception of Young gave the Steelers another opportunity to put points on the board. Leftwich found WR Derrick Williams for a 10-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 28-7 lead. Leftwich finished 5-of-8 for 105 yards and two touchdowns.

The Steelers made it 31-7 on K Daniel Hrapmann's 40-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter. With less than three minutes remaining in the game, RB Chris Rainey broke off a 41-yard touchdown run to cap off the 38-7 victory.

Despite a slow start on offense, the Steelers scored on six of their final 10 drives. The Steelers offense tallied 378 total net yards (269 passing, 109 rushing) and did not commit any turnovers.

The Steelers defensed had another strong showing. It forced three turnovers, had two sacks and held the Bills to less than 200 passing yards.

Preseason Game #4
Pittsburgh 17, Carolina 16
Aug. 30, 2012
Heinz Field (50,122)

PITTSBURGH – K Justin Medlock missed a 50-yard field goal with 38 seconds left in the game, and the Steelers capped the 2012 preseason with a 17-16 victory over the Carolina Panthers. The Steelers finished the preseason with a record of 3-1.

Pittsburgh wasted no time scoring as they marched right down the field after the opening kickoff. QB Charlie Batch led the team on a five-play, 80-yard drive that he capped off with a 37-yard touchdown pass to WR Emmanuel Sanders.

K Shaun Suisham put the Steelers up 10-0 late in the first quarter when he connected on a 49-yard field goal. Midway through the second quarter Medlock connected on a 31-yard field goal to cut the lead 10-3, which the score remained into halftime.

The Panthers tied the game 10-10 when QB Jimmy Clausen found WR Jared Green for a three-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter. Medlock had a chance to put the Panthers up late in the third quarter, but his 56-yard field goal went wide left.

The Steelers took the lead for good midway through the fourth quarter when QB Jerrod Johnson found TE Weslye Saunders for a six-yard touchdown pass.

The Panthers made it interesting down the stretch. With less than three minutes left to play, Clausen found WR Lamont Bryant for a 79-yard touchdown pass. After the touchdown, the Panthers went for the win and attempted a two-point conversion, but Clausen's pass to Bryant fell incomplete. The Panthers had one more chance for the win but Medlock's kick was wide right.

The majority of the Steelers starters did not see game action, but the Steelers got quality play from their backups. Batch finished the game 11-of-14 for 102 yards and one touchdown. Three different Steelers (RB Jonathan Dwyer, RB DuJuan Harris and RB Baron Batch) all had at least 30 yards rushing, and 12 different Steelers had at least one reception.

Game #1
Denver 31, Pittsburgh 19
Sept. 9, 2012
Sports Authority Field at Mile High (76,823)

DENVER – CB Tracy Porter intercepted QB Ben Roethlisberger and returned it 43 yards for a touchdown with less than two minutes remaining to seal the 31-19 Broncos victory over the Steelers in the 2012 season opener.

Both teams got off to a slow start as neither team scored in the first quarter. Pittsburgh struck early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham nailed a 21-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead. Midway through the second quarter the Broncos went up 7-3 when RB Knowshon Moreno scored on a seven-yard run.

The Steelers capitalized right before halftime when Roethlisberger connected with TE Heath Miller on a four-yard touchdown, and the Steelers took a 10-7 lead into the break.

Suisham connected on a 35-yard field goal midway through the third quarter to give Pittsburgh a 13-7 lead. But on Denver's ensuing drive, QB Peyton Manning and WR Demaryius Thomas connected on a 71-yard touchdown to put the Broncos up 14-13.

The Steelers took the lead back early in the fourth quarter and went up 19-14 when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a three-yard touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 22-of-40 for 245 yards and two touchdowns.

The Broncos went on to score 17 unanswered points. Manning connected with TE Jacob Tamme on a one-yard score to put Denver up 22-19. Denver then extended their lead to 25-19 on K Matt Prater's 26-yard field goal. The Steelers had one final chance to win the game but Porter stepped in front of Roethlisberger's pass and returned it for a touchdown.

The Steelers controlled the ball for 35:05 compared to the Broncos 24:55, and the Steelers' offense converted 11-of-19 (58%) of their third-down attempts.

Game #2
Pittsburgh 27, New York Jets 10
Sept. 16, 2012
Heinz Field (64,511)

PITTSBURGH – The Steelers defeated the New York Jets 27-10 in the 2012 home opener at Heinz Field. With the victory, the Steelers won their 10th consecutive home opener.

The Steelers got on the board first when K Shaun Suisham nailed a 45-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 3-0. The Jets responded on their ensuing drive as QB Mark Sanchez led New York on an eight-play, 90-yard drive that he capped off with a 14-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes.

Suisham connected from 45-yards out again early in the second quarter to cut the lead 7-6. New York extended its lead to 10-6 on K Nick Folk's 38-yard field goal midway through the second quarter but it would be the last points the Jets would score.

Just before halftime, the Steelers went up 13-10 when QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a one-yard touchdown, capping off an 11-play, 80-yard drive. Early in the third quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 37-yard score to give the Steelers a 20-10 lead.

Roethlisberger finished 24-of-31 for 275 yards and two touchdowns for a quarterback rating of 125.1. It marked the 47th time Roethlisberger recorded a quarterback rating of 100.0+ during the regular season.

Pittsburgh sealed the victory late in the fourth quarter when RB Isaac Redman scored on a two-yard run. The Steelers controlled the ball for 10:13 on that drive, going 75 yards on 14 plays.

The Steelers defense held the Jets to 219 total net yards (129 passing and 90 rushing), while registering two sacks and holding the Jets to 4-of-12 on third-down conversions.

The Steelers dominated the time of possession 36:36-23:24 and continued their success on third-down conversions. For the second week in a row, the Steelers converted at least 50% of their third-down attempts.

Game #3
Oakland 34, Pittsburgh 31
Sept. 23, 2012
Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (62,373)

OAKLAND – K Sebastian Janikowski kicked a 43-yard field goal as time expired to beat the Steelers 34-31. Pittsburgh dropped to 1-2 on the season.

S Ryan Clark's interception of QB Carson Palmer on the Raiders' first play of the game set the Steelers up at Oakland's 36-yard line. Seven plays later, QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a four-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 7-0.

The Raiders responded on their next drive as RB Darren McFadden scored on a 64-yard run to tie the game 7-7. Late in the first quarter, Roethlisberger hooked up with Miller again for another four-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 14-7.

Oakland tied the game 14-14 right after the two-minute warning when Palmer found WR Darius Heyward-Bey for a three-yard touchdown. But Pittsburgh took a 17-14 lead into halftime on K Shaun Suisham's 33-yard field goal.

The Steelers scored on their first drive of the second half to take a 24-14 lead when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 22-yard touchdown. Midway through the third quarter the Raiders cut the lead to 24-21 when Palmer found TE Richard Gordon for a one-yard touchdown.

Pittsburgh extended their lead 31-21 late in the third quarter when Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for an 11-yard score. Roethlisberger finished with a game-high 384 passing yards and four touchdown passes.

Oakland scored the next 13 points. Palmer found WR Denarius Moore for a six-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter to cut the lead 31-28. Janikowski connected from 32 yards out midway through the fourth quarter to tie the game 31-31. After the Raiders recovered a Steelers' fumble after the two-minute warning, Palmer led them down the field for Janikowski's game-winning kick.

Game #4
Pittsburgh 16, Philadelphia 14
Oct. 7, 2012
Heinz Field (64,737)

PITTSBURGH – K Shaun Suisham nailed a 34-yard field goal in the rain as time expired to lift the Steelers to a 16-14 victory against the Philadelphia Eagles at Heinz Field. It was Suisham's fifth career game-winning field goal and third as a Steeler.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Steelers found the end zone with five minutes left before the half. RB Rashard Mendenhall, in his first game of the 2012 season, scored on a 13-yard run to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. It marked Mendehall's 30th career rushing touchdown, making him the fifth Steeler to reach 30 career rushing touchdowns in the regular season.

Seconds before halftime, Suisham connected on a 20-yard field goal. For the fourth consecutive game, the Steelers scored on their final drive before halftime, and Pittsburgh took a 10-0 lead into halftime.

The Eagles responded midway through the third quarter when QB Michael Vick found RB LeSean McCoy for a 15-yard touchdown to cut the lead 10-7. Suisham connected on a 34-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to give the Steelers a 13-7 lead.

Philadelphia went 79 yards on 17 plays and took a 14-13 lead as Vick found TE Brent Celek for a two-yard touchdown. The Eagles controlled the football for more than eight minutes on the drive.

Pittsburgh took over with more than six minutes left in the game. QB Ben Roethlisberger then led the team on a 14-play, 64-yard drive to set up Suisham's game-winning kick. It marked the 25th time in Roethlisberger's career that he registered a fourth-quarter/overtime game-winning drive.

The Steelers offensive line did not allow a sack and they paved the way for Steelers' rushers to gain a season-high 136 rushing yards. The Steelers defense forced a total of four fumbles and had two fumble recoveries. The defense forced three fumbles in the first half alone.

Game #5
Tennessee 26, Pittsburgh 23
Oct. 11, 2012
LP Field (69,143)

NASHVILLE – K Rob Bironas connected on a 40-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Tennessee Titans to a 26-23 victory over the Steelers at LP Field.

The Titans took the opening kickoff and drove 69 yards on nine plays and went up 3-0 on Bironas' 22-yard field goal. Pittsburgh tied the game midway through the first when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 29-yard field goal.

After forcing Tennessee to punt, the Steelers took over at their own 18-yard line. On the very first play, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for an 82-yard touchdown. It was the fourth-longest passing play of Roethlisberger's career and second-longest reception of Wallace's career.

Bironas nailed a 38-yard field goal near the end of the first quarter to cut the Steelers lead 10-6. And at the very end of the first quarter, LB Tim Shaw blocked a Drew Butler punt to set the Titans up at the Steelers' one-yard line. RB Jamie Harper then scored from one-yard out to give the Titans a 13-10 lead.

Bironas added another field goal, a 47-yarder as the halftime whistle sounded, and the Titans took a 16-10 lead into halftime.

The only score in the third quarter came on Suisham's 28-yard field goal and the Steelers faced a 16-13 deficit heading into the fourth quarter. Early in the fourth, RB Baron Batch scored his first career touchdown on a one-yard run to give the Steelers a 20-16 lead.

On the Titans' ensuing drive, LB Lawrence Timmons stepped in front of a Matt Hasselbeck pass and picked it off setting the Steelers up in Titans' territory. Suisham then made a 52-yard field goal to extend the Steelers lead to 23-16.

Tennessee started their ensuing drive on their own 20-yard line. Hasselbeck then led the Titans on an 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off by a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Kenny Britt. With the game tied 23-23, Pittsburgh took over at their own 11-yard line. Roethlisberger led the team into Titans' territory where Suisham attempted a career-long 54-yard field goal. The kick fell short.

With 49 seconds left in the game, Hasselbeck drove Tennessee into Steelers' territory, setting up Bironas' game-winning kick.

Game #6
Pittsburgh 24, Cincinnati 17
Oct. 21, 2012
Paul Brown Stadium (63,411)

CINCINNATI – Facing a third-and-seven with less than two minutes remaining in the game, RB Jonathan Dwyer sprinted up the middle for 32 yards to seal the Steelers' 24-17 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on its opening possession to take a 3-0 lead on K Shaun Suisham's 42-yard field goal. On the ensuing kickoff, the Bengals took over at their own 20-yard line. QB Andy Dalton then led Cincinnati on a 15-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off with a five-yard touchdown run by RB Cedric Peerman to give the Bengals a 7-3 lead.

After a Kevin Huber punt was downed in Steelers' territory, Pittsburgh took over at its own 13-yard line. On the very first play, QB Ben Roethlisberger was sacked by DT Devon Still and DE Robert Geathers and fumbled the football. The Bengals recovered the ball and set up at the Pittsburgh eight-yard line. Dalton found WR A.J. Green for an eight-yard touchdown on the first play and the Bengals led 14-3.

Late in the second quarter, Suisham connected on a 47-yard field goal to cut the lead 14-6. On the Bengals' ensuing drive, LB LaMarr Woodley picked off Dalton to set the Steelers up at the Bengals 29-yard line. Roethlisberger then found TE Heath Miller for a nine-yard score. The Steelers then went for a two-point conversion, and Roethlisberger and Miller hooked up again for the two point-try and the teams entered halftime tied 14-14.

Cincinnati scored on its first drive of the second half to take a 17-14 lead when K Mike Nugent connected on a 48-yard field goal. It would be the last points the Bengals would score. Suisham would connect on a 42-yard field goal on the Steelers ensuing possession to tie the game 17-17.

The Steelers started a drive at their own 33-yard line late in the third quarter. Roethlisberger then led his team on an eight-play, 67-yard drive that was capped off by RB Chris Rainey's 11-yard touchdown run. It marked Rainey's first career touchdown.

After the Steelers made it 24-17, the Bengals had three more chances to tie the game but the Steelers defense forced Cincinnati to punt all three times on their final three drives.

Game #7
Pittsburgh 27, Washington 12
Oct. 28, 2012
Heinz Field (62,371)

PITTSBURGH – RB Jonathan Dwyer rushed for 107 yards and QB Ben Roethlisberger threw for three touchdowns, guiding the Steelers to a 27-12 victory over the Washington Redskins at Heinz Field. The Steelers improved to 4-3 on the season.

Pittsburgh took a 7-0 lead on its opening possession, marching 76 yards on 12 plays. Roethlisberger capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Leonard Pope. The Steelers increased their lead 10-0 on their next drive on K Shaun Suisham's 48-yard field goal.

Early in the second quarter, Washington cut the lead 10-6 when QB Robert Griffin III found WR Santana Moss for a two-yard touchdown but the Redskins' extra point attempt was blocked by DE Ziggy Hood. It was the first time the Steelers blocked a PAT since 2003.

Midway through the second quarter, Roethlisberger connected with TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard touchdown reception to increase Pittsburgh's lead 17-6. With the touchdown, Miller tied former TE Elbie Nickel (37) for the most receiving touchdowns by a tight end in team history.

Suisham connected on a 27-yard field goal late in the second and the Steelers took a 20-6 lead into halftime. K Kai Forbath made a 48-yard field goal to cut the Steelers' lead to 20-9 on Washington's first possession of the second half.

Roethlisberger threw his final touchdown pass of the afternoon midway through the third quarter, finding FB Will Johnson for a one-yard score. The Redskins scored their final points of the afternoon on Forbath's 45-yard field goal.

The Steelers used a heavy dose of the run game throughout the second half, racking up 72 yards on 17 carries (4.2 avg.) Dwyer's final run of 13 yards put him over the century mark for the second-straight week.

Pittsburgh controlled the ball for more than 33 minutes and for the second time this season, the offensive line did not allow a quarterback sack. The defense held the Redskins' number-one rushing attack to just 86 yards and held Griffin III to 177 passing yards and a completion percentage of 47.1.

Game #8
Pittsburgh 24, New York Giants 20
Nov. 4, 2012
MetLife Stadium (80,991)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – RB Isaac Redman scored on a one-yard run with four minutes left in the game to seal the Steelers 24-20 victory over the New York Giants at MetLife Stadium. The Steelers improved to 5-3 on the season with the win.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Steelers took a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for a four-yard touchdown pass that capped off an 11-play, 58-yard drive.

The Giants then scored 14-consecutive points in less than seven minutes. RB Andre Brown scored on a one-yard run to tie the game 7-7. And on the Steelers ensuing drive, Roethlisberger fumbled and Giants' LB Michael Boley returned it 70 yards for a touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead 14-10 when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 30-yard field goal as the halftime whistle sounded.

The Giants extended their lead 17-10 on K Lawrence Tynes' 50-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. Tynes added a 23-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter to give New York a 20-10 lead but it would be the last points the Giants would score.

Early in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace in the middle of the field and Wallace raced past defenders for a 51-yard touchdown. It marked Wallace's 25th career reception of 25+ yards and the 15th that went for a touchdown.

The Steelers defense forced a three-and-out on the Giants' ensuing drive. WR Emmanuel Sanders then returned a punt 63 yards to set the Steelers up at the Giants' 12-yard line. The Steelers drive stalled and the team set up for a field goal. Pittsburgh went for the fake but the Giants stopped them short of the goal line.

Pittsburgh's defense forced another Giants' three-and-out. And on the Steelers next possession, the team drove 51 yards on nine plays for the game-winning touchdown.

Entering the game, the Giants had outscored their opponents by 42 points in the fourth quarter. The Steelers defense didn't allow the Giants to score and the Steelers offense put up 14 points. After only being sacked six times all season, the Steelers defense brought down Giants' QB Eli Manning twice.

Game #9
Pittsburgh 16, Kansas City 13
Nov. 12, 2012
Heinz Field (57,644)

PITTSBURGH – LB Lawrence Timmons intercepted QB Matt Cassel on the second play of overtime and K Shaun Suisham booted a 23-yard field goal one play later as the Steelers overcame a sluggish game to capture a 16-13 victory over the visiting Kansas City Chiefs. The Steelers improved to 6-3 on the year and won their fourth straight game, including their record 15th consecutive win on Monday Night Football.

The Steelers struggled most of the night getting in sync on a cold, rainy night at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh fell behind 10-0 early in the second quarter after a pair of Kansas City scores. The offense was able to respond and knot the score at 10-10 by the half as Suisham connected on 35-yard field goal and QB Ben Roethlisberger hit WR Mike Wallace for a seven-yard touchdown.

Pittsburgh suffered a significant injury in the third quarter, though, as Roethlisberger was taken from the game with a right shoulder injury. He did not return, and QB Byron Leftwich finished the game. Leftwich, in his first action of the season, was 7-of-14 for 73 yards.

Suisham added his second of three field goals in the game with 12:37 remaining in the contest to give Pittsburgh a 13-10 lead. However, the Chiefs were able to tie the game and force overtime as K Ryan Succop booted a 46-yard, game-tying field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter.

Suisham finished the game 3-for-3 in field goals on a night when both offenses struggled. Both teams managed 14 first downs but the Steelers were just 6-of-16 on third downs while Kansas City was a mere 2-of-13 on such downs.

S Ryan Clark led the Steeler with 10 tackles before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with a possible concussion. Timmons added seven tackles, one interception and two passes defensed in the win.

Game #10
Baltimore 13, Pittsburgh 10
Nov. 18, 2012
Heinz Field (63,446)

PITTSBURGH – The Ravens converted two field goals and WR Jacoby Jones returned a punt 63 yards for a touchdown to beat the Steelers 13-10 at Heinz Field. The Steelers fell to 6-4 on the season and the Ravens improved to 8-2.

It only took the Steelers two plays to score their first touchdown. QB Byron Leftwich, starting in place of injured QB Ben Roethlisberger, led the team 80 yards on just two plays to take a 7-0 lead. Leftwich capped off the drive with a career-long 31-yard touchdown run.

Pittsburgh held the Ravens to a three-and-out and forced a punt on their first possession. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, Leftwich found WR Mike Wallace for a 15-yard gain on a third-and-10 but Wallace was stripped of the football by CB Chris Johnson. S Ed Reed picked up the fumble and returned it to the Steelers' 14-yard line. The Steelers defense forced another Ravens three-and-out but K Justin Tucker connected on a 26-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3.

Late in the first quarter, Jones returned Drew Butler's punt 63 yards for a touchdown. It marked Jones' third return for a touchdown on the season. Baltimore looked to extend its lead early in the second quarter but Tucker's 41-yard attempt sailed to the right. Neither team scored points in the second quarter and the Ravens took a 10-7 lead into halftime.

Pittsburgh forced another Baltimore three-and-out on the Ravens first possession of the second half. On the Steelers first drive of the second half, Leftwich led the team into Ravens' territory. But on a third-and-eight, Leftwich's pass that was intended for WR Emmanuel Sanders was picked off by CB Corey Graham.

Tucker connected from 39 yards out on the Ravens' ensuing drive to give the Ravens a 13-7 lead. K Shaun Suisham made a 22-yard field goal late in the third quarter to cut the lead 13-10. But it would be the closest the Steelers would get.

The Steelers outgained the Ravens 311-to-200 in total net yards and Steelers' rushers outgained the Ravens 134-to-47 on the ground. For the 33rd consecutive game, the Steelers held their opponent to less than 300 net passing yards in a game.

Game #11
Cleveland 20, Pittsburgh 14
Nov. 25, 2012
Cleveland Browns Stadium (69,661)

CLEVELAND – The Steelers could not overcome a season-high eight turnovers (five fumbles and three interceptions) and fell to the Cleveland Browns, 20-14, at Cleveland Browns Stadium.

Pittsburgh's defense got off to a quick start. On the Browns' first drive of the game, DE Brett Keisel tipped QB Brandon Weeden's pass, and LB Lawrence Timmons picked it off and returned in 53 yards for a touchdown to give the Steelers a 7-0 lead. It marked Timmons' third interception of the season, which is a career high.

The Steelers' defense held the Browns to a three-and-out on their next drive, and the Steelers' offense, led by veteran QB Charlie Batch, took over from their own 41-yard line. But two plays later, RB Rashard Mendenhall fumbled, which gave the Browns the ball in Steelers' territory. Seven plays later, the Browns cut the lead 7-3 on K Phil Dawson's 28-yard field goal.

Early in the second quarter, the Steelers faced a third-and-19 from their own five-yard line. RB Isaac Redman took a handoff and fumbled, setting the Browns up at the Steelers' 10-yard line. Three plays later, Weeden found TE Cameron Jordan for a five-yard touchdown to give the Browns a 10-7 lead.

Midway through the second quarter, Weeden led the Browns on a 10-play, 44-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard Phil Dawson field goal to extend Cleveland's lead 13-7. On the Steelers' ensuing drive, RB Jonathan Dwyer fumbled. Pittsburgh's defense forced the Browns to punt on the ensuing drive, and the Steelers took over with less than two minutes remaining in the half.

Batch then led the Steelers on a nine-play, 84-yard drive that was capped off with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Rainey with only one second left. It marked Rainey's second career touchdown, and the Steelers took a 14-13 lead into halftime.

Midway through the third quarter, Batch was intercepted by CB Sheldon Brown. Three plays later, RB Trent Richardson scored on a 15-yard run to give the Browns a 20-14 lead, and ultimately the win. The Steelers had opportunities to capture the go-ahead score, but the Steelers turned the ball over four more times in the fourth quarter.

Game #12
Pittsburgh 23, Baltimore 20
Dec. 2, 2012
M&T Bank Stadium (71,442)

BALTIMORE – K Shaun Suisham nailed a 42-yard field goal as time expired to lift the Steelers to a 23-20 victory over the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium. The win snapped the Ravens' 15-game home winning streak and 12-game AFC North winning streak.

Suisham nailed a 46-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead, capping off an 11-play, 48-yard drive on Pittsburgh's first possession. The Ravens tied the game, 3-3, on K Justin Tucker's 45-yard field goal early in the second quarter. Tucker added a 23-yard field goal midway through the second quarter to give Baltimore a 6-3 lead.

The Steelers marched into Ravens' territory on their ensuing drive, but CB Corey Graham picked off WR Antonio Brown's pass on a trick play. QB Joe Flacco then led the team on a four-play, 69-yard drive that was capped off by a 28-yard touchdown pass to WR Anquan Boldin. Suisham added a 41-yard field goal prior to halftime and the Steelers trailed 13-6 going into the break.

Pittsburgh tied the game 13-13 on its first drive of the second half. QB Charlie Batch led the team on a seven-play, 78-yard drive and threw a key block on RB Jonathan Dwyer's 16-yard touchdown run. Midway through the third, the Ravens took a 20-13 lead when RB Ray Rice scored on a 34-yard touchdown run.

LB James Harrison sacked and stripped Flacco early in the fourth quarter. The Steelers took over in Ravens' territory and tied the game 20-20 when Batch found TE Heath Miller for a seven-yard touchdown pass midway through the fourth quarter. It was Miller's 38th career receiving touchdown, giving him the team's all-time record for receiving touchdowns by a tight end.

Pittsburgh held the Ravens on their next possession and forced a punt. Batch and the Steelers took over at their own 15-yard line. Batch then led the team on a 12-play, 61-yard drive that took up the remaining 6:14 left in the game. Suisham's game-winning kick was the seventh of his career, the third this season and the fifth as a Steeler.

Game #13
San Diego 34, Pittsburgh 24
Dec. 9, 2012
Heinz Field (61,359)

PITTSBURGH – QB Philip Rivers threw for 200 yards and three touchdowns, lifting the visiting San Diego Chargers to a 34-24 victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field. The Steelers dropped to 7-6 on the season.

San Diego scored the first 13 points of the contest. Late in the first quarter, K Nick Novak connected on a 51-yard field goal to give the Chargers a 3-0 lead. Late in the second quarter, Rivers found WR Danario Alexander down the sideline for a 39-yard touchdown to give San Diego a 10-0 lead. With just 50 seconds left in the half, Novak drilled a 39-yard field goal to give the Chargers a 13-0 lead.

The Steelers managed to cut the lead to 13-3 when K Shaun Suisham connected on a 49-yard field goal at the end of the first half. On the Chargers first drive of the second half, Rivers led the team on a 17-play, 78-yard drive that took 9:32 off the clock. Rivers capped off that drive with a three-yard pass to WR Malcom Floyd, and San Diego took a 20-3 lead.

On Pittsburgh's ensuing drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger attempted to throw a screen pass to WR Antonio Brown but the ball ricocheted off TE David Paulson and rolled into the endzone. CB Quentin Jammer recovered the ball in the endzone for the touchdown and the Chargers took a 27-3 lead.

Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace on the Steelers' ensuing possession for a 40-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead 27-10. It was Wallace's 26th career reception of 40+ yards and the 16th that has gone for a touchdown.

The Steelers held the Chargers on their next drive and forced them to punt. But Roethlisberger threw an interception to Chargers' LB Bront Bird on the second play of the drive. Rivers then threw his third touchdown pass of the game, a 15-yarder to Alexander, and San Diego led 34-10.

Roethlisberger threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Wallace midway through the fourth to cut the lead 34-17, and Roethlisberger threw a one-yard touchdown to Brown with less than a minute remaining.

Game #14
Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 24 (OT)
Dec. 16, 2012
Cowboys Stadium (95,595)

ARLINGTON – CB Brandon Carr's interception of QB Ben Roethlisberger set up K Dan Bailey's game-winning 21-yard field goal in overtime, lifting the Cowboys to a 27-24 victory over the Steelers.

The Cowboys scored the first 10 points of the contest. Bailey connected on a 50-yard field goal midway through the first quarter to give Dallas a 3-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, QB Tony Romo found TE Jason Witten for a 17-yard touchdown pass to give the Cowboys a 10-0 lead.

Pittsburgh responded with 10 unanswered points. First, K Shaun Suisham nailed a 32-yard field goal midway through the second quarter to cut the lead 10-3. And prior to halftime, Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a 30-yard touchdown to tie the game at 10-10.

Romo found WR Dez Bryant for a 24-yard touchdown pass midway through the third quarter to give the Cowboys a 17-10 lead. But on the Steelers' ensuing drive, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 60-yard completion, which set up another Steelers touchdown. RB Jonathan Dwyer scored from one-yard out to tie the game 17-17.

Early in the fourth quarter, Pittsburgh took a 24-17 lead when Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown for a seven-yard touchdown. The Steelers defense forced the Cowboys to punt on their next drive. On the punt return, Brown was stripped of the ball and the Cowboys took over in Steelers' territory.

Romo then led the Cowboys on a seven-play drive that was capped off by RB DeMarco Murray's three-yard touchdown run to tie the game 24-24. Both teams possessed the ball late in the game but were unable to capitalize and the game went into overtime.

The Steelers won the toss in overtime and elected to receive. On the second play of overtime, Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by Carr and returned to the Pittsburgh one-yard line. Bailey then made the game-winning kick two plays later.

Game #15
Cincinnati 13, Pittsburgh 10
Dec. 23, 2012
Heinz Field (63,236)

PITTSBURGH – K Josh Brown connected on a 43-yard field goal with four seconds left in regulation, lifting the Cincinnati Bengals to a 13-10 victory over the Steelers at Heinz Field.

The Bengals took a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when CB Leon Hall stepped in front of QB Ben Roethlisberger's pass and returned it 17 yards for a touchdown. The Steelers marched right down the field on their ensuing drive but K Shaun Suisham missed a 24-yard field goal attempt.

With less than four minutes to go in the half, Cincinnati took over at the Pittsburgh 42-yard line. Brown made a 41-yard field goal to cap off the drive, and the Bengals increased their lead to 10-0. On the second play of the Steelers ensuing drive, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Antonio Brown streaking down the sideline for a 60-yard touchdown, and the Steelers went into halftime trailing 10-7.

The only score in the third quarter came when Suisham connected on a 40-yard field goal to tie the game 10-10. The Steelers defense forced its first of two fourth quarter turnovers when CB Cortez Allen forced a fumble on WR A.J. Green. But Pittsburgh was forced to punt on their next possession. On the Bengals next drive, Allen recorded his second interception of the afternoon and second of his career but the Steelers once again were unable to capitalize.

Cincinnati took over on its own 10-yard line midway through the fourth quarter. Dalton led his team to the Pittsburgh 38-yard line where Brown attempted a 56-yard field goal. His attempt came up short. On the Steelers' next drive, Suisham attempted a 53-yard field goal, but his attempt also came up short.

The Steelers defense forced another Cincinnati punt and took over at its own 11-yard line with less than a minute to play. On the third play of the drive, Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by Reggie Nelson, who returned it to the Pittsburgh 46-yard line. Dalton then threw a 21-yard strike to Green, setting up Brown's game-winning kick.

Game #16
Pittsburgh 24, Cleveland 10
Dec. 30, 2012
Heinz Field (51,831)

PITTSBURGH – QB Ben Roethlisberger capped off a three-touchdown performance with a 12-yard strike to WR Plaxico Burress late in the fourth quarter to seal the Steelers 24-10 victory over the visiting Cleveland Browns at Heinz Field. With the win, the Steelers finished 8-8 on the season.

Neither team scored in the first quarter but the Browns were at the Steelers' 25-yard line. S Troy Polamalu picked off QB Thad Lewis to end Cleveland's threat of scoring. It was Polamalu's 30th career interception.

Midway through the second quarter, K Shaun Suisham connected on a 41-yard field goal to give the Steelers a 3-0 lead. K Phil Dawson's 51-yard field goal tied the game at 3-3 late in the second quarter. And after forcing a Steelers' punt, the Browns took over with just less than two minutes remaining in the half.

But on the second play of the drive, CB Cortez Allen forced a fumble on WR Josh Gordon that was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons. Roethlisberger then led the team on a three-play, 24-yard drive that was capped off with a one-yard touchdown pass to TE Leonard Pope, and the Steelers took a 10-3 lead into halftime.

Cleveland marched 80 yards in six plays on its opening drive of the second half to tie the game 10-10. On that drive, the Browns faked a punt for a 35-yard gain and the Steelers committed a 35-yard pass interference penalty, which help set up Lewis' seven-yard touchdown pass to WR Greg Little.

On Pittsburgh's ensuing drive, Roethlisberger led the team on a 12-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off with a nine-yard touchdown pass to WR Antonio Brown to give the Steelers a 17-10 lead late in the third quarter.

In the middle of the fourth quarter, the Steelers' defense forced its third turnover of the game. Lewis completed a pass to WR Travis Benjamin and Allen forced his second fumble of the afternoon and returned it 21 yards to the Cleveland 27-yard line. It marked Allen's fifth forced turnover in the last two games. Six plays later, Roethlisberger found Burress for the game-clinching touchdown.
